

BREAST LUMPS

Question: What do women's breast lumps stand for energetically?

Answer: These are the energies of the materialized unforgiveness and feelings of guilt in woman toward herself.

Question: How to prevent the formation of such lumps?

Answer: It is important for WOMEN to find COMPASSION in themselves and with this Compassion, to accept themselves, every thought, word, decision and action, without conditions.

Question: How do lumps form in female breasts, energetically?

Answer: This is related to how women can very quickly create unforgiveness and feelings of guilt in themselves. Remember, when you take a wrong turn on the highway, how quickly all women create the feeling of guilt of a wrong turn, and basically nothing bad happened at all.

This experience, however, has shown you how easy it is to get out of the way. It takes just a little inattention and life unwinds completely differently.

And it has also shown you how very quickly you can accuse yourself and create feelings of guilt, but also how to take or not to take RESPONSIBILITY for your decisions.

BECAUSE TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY, DOES NOT MEAN FEELING GUILTY.

It is a common phenomenon amongst people that if something does not go as expected they blame themselves automatically for it, because the changed situation can limit, or influence other people. It is as if they would do a mistake. They act as if something went wrong.

It is important to take RESPONSIBILITY for the decision, but we should not feel guilty about making a mistake.

It goes without saying that if something turned out in a way other than expected, we regret it. If we would not care, it would be a manifestation of pride. However when that person took responsibility for his decision for what happened and there was no negative, bad intention then there is no point in creating a feeling of guilt.

YOU - human beings have it in you automatically, and you immediately create those feelings of guilt. It happens when we take things personally that is what creates that guilt i.e. I am guilty of that and that etc.

If you act in the best of intentions and do your best and yet it goes wrong, there is nothing you can do. There is no reason for you to be preoccupied and create that feeling of guilt because you do not know and cannot influence the actions and decisions of others. You don't even see the other people's bad intentions and that's not your responsibility.

It's the other's RESPONSIBILITY, but YOU take it on yourself and create feelings of guilt.

Question: When a situation or conflict creates pain in a person, how can he create the Compassion that will stop him from getting hurt, angering or irritating?

Answer: This happens when you can step back and observe this conflict situation from the perspective of a viewer who is not directly involved with his own energy. Otherwise, you could be attacked by the negative vibration of other human beings who is part of that conflict situation.

Energetically, it means following will happen: the attacker sends out a strong energy from his belly and burst that into the belly of a victim thus discharged all energy from sacral chakra. It is something similar to a power cut then there is no strength to pull up the energy into the heart chakra.

This is the consequence. Those negative energies continue to work and the man's energies are discharged. Then it takes a long time for it to change to be able to live LOVE again. When people are in fear for a long time, they only work from 1, 2, and 3 chakras. There is no flow in higher chakras.

Then there is no power to pull up those energies to the heart. Consequently they stay only in 1,2,3, chakra, they can not come to the Light and FORGIVENESS takes long time to happen.

Paradoxically, therefore, women's breasts become ill, because women have a lack of LOVE for THEMSELVES. They do not even get the LOVE.

They have only feelings of guilt, unworthiness, failure and unforgiveness toward each other. Breasts are an expression of LIFE, they are the source of LOVE. When a woman does not feel Love for herself then it is reflected in breasts. It is like, the unforgiveness, it gets stacked in those breasts, and it creates lumps, tumours, and diseases.

Women are more emotional and work more with emotions than men. Breasts stand out from women body. They are in the front line. They are attacked as first by UNLOVE. Mostly women that live in UNEQUAL relationships suffer from breast lumps. The Love, Trust, Appreciation and Respect towards women is still missing. They don't get it from their partners and they don't give it to themselves either.

Many women are trampled and energetically depleted. They do not have any inner strength and this will cause breast disease.

Such a woman will build inner resistance, the backpressure in themselves. However, she does nothing and she just suffers. Eventually, she defends herself internally and is afraid, worried, etc.

And then she pulls herself down to the level of her belly and all what is above is energetically unused. Life vanishes from her and those breasts become ill.

In such state of body and mind, only 1,2,3, chakras work. All the conflict situations pull her down energetically. It is a life in fear. It is life narrowed down to physiological needs. The emotion of LOVE is not able to be expressed through the Compassion, because the vibration of that woman is very low.

If you cannot create COMPASSION inside yourself, you are not in HEART.

Question: How do I get energetically up again as quickly as possible?

Answer: It helps listen to classical and meditative music, meditate, embrace trees, go into the woods, take a walk in the park, walk barefoot on the grass and connect with Mother Earth, sing, etc.

Question: Often man behaves with great disrespect for his wife and does not respect her as an equal human being. How to forgive him?

Answer: The pain that this man creates by disrespecting his women, wife and mother of his children, causes deep inner conflict in woman between what she lives and what she desires to live.

And because this deep inner conflict, the woman experiences pain through her hurt soul, innerly she is constricted. In this case, it is a normal reaction that the woman cannot forgive that man for such behavior.

In such situation, when man is blind and cold there is no Love in his heart. That is why he treats his woman in such way.

He acts from a position of power. He performs this power, dominance, on everyone below him i.e. his wife, children and their families. Everyone tolerates his behaviour because he is the man, the husband, the father, the grandfather. But there is no love to close ones.

Question: Often men run „Hot and Cold,, strategy, and then the woman forgives the man and stays. Why is it so?

Answer: That's the mercy syndrome. In such case, the woman will still be going up and down energetically. From the energetical point of view, this man works only through the 1, 2, and 3 chakras, he is irritated when the woman is energetically higher. So he does anything to pull her down. Only when they are leveled up, he is satisfied.

This is the exact picture of how duality currently works.

This is just a glimpse of the darkness's fight against the Light, of how the the fear always tries to absorb the Light, and how little is ever enough to pull the Light down.

Just as in the world it works through all those dark beings - entities that live on the basis of those negative energies of fear. There are just a few people living in that Light. They need to make an enormous effort to stay in that Light and that is the Harmony of Loves.

The power of the darkness is immense, and it begins in the family, and then it goes through groups, communities, and states. Those are all mechanisms that have power.

Question: Why is it so and why are we actually born here?

Answer: You want to be here because of this duality and that's why you are born here, because elsewhere you will not gain such experience.

It is a school where you will gain this experience. Look at it as on theatre.

You come here to play your roles, to experience, to try and thus through that experience to moved forward. Nothing is good and nothing is wrong. Whatever you choose, everything is good. Everything is an experience that otherwise you will not experience. It is up to you how you decide and which option you choose for yourself and whether you choose the form of suffering or LOVE and FREEDOM.

Question: Why can't women forgive themselves?

Answer: Because the pain in them is deeply rooted, precisely because of the role of the victim, but also because of the hatred they create in themselves against the human being who hurt them, betrayed them, themor and humiliated them. That is why women are still angry at this person.

If the anger continues, it is written in herself in level of unforgiveness. Then she can not be energetically neutral towards that human being. The anger and hatred will create energy of helplessness over time.

If you find yourself in state of helplessness then you can not forgive yourself nor others.

Question: How can this woman change it in herself and what can she do to change it?

Answer: Through that HUMILITY in herself, she can accept COMPASSION, that is, she needs to have COMPASSION with herself first so she can have COMPASSION with other human being, and only then she can forgive him.

ONLY through LOVE, you can accept COMPASSION that helps you FORGIVE.

It is, the COMPASSION that will allow you to love the other human being so much that you can forgive everything.

Yet you do not have to agree with what the human being does Here and Now, and you do not have to agree with what he is, but in that compassionate love you can accept that human being as he is.

And this is what you all need to do, not just women. So to accept the essence of every human being,

That is, we all should accept the essence of every human, the SOUL, that is worthy of that LOVE and FORGIVENESS.
