

JUSTICE'S MESSAGE - Part 2.

Another message of the book you will be left with is that her Love healed him just because she could FORGIVE.

FORGIVING IS A GIFT OF COMPASSIONATE LOVE.

The young woman had compassion in her heart and so she had the gift of forgiveness. FORGIVENESS is what heals you.

The deep understanding and comprehension, so you can forgive and can be fair, brings you Responsibility and that teaches you to see things and situations in a broader context.

When you begin to see things in a broader sense, thus you begin to understand the consequences of your decisions and your actions, and then you become righteous.

Justice is Archangel Zachariel's GIFT.

You cannot trust in yourself and believe in God likewise you cannot believe in God and not trust yourself because God and Love are one and the same.

You have learned to perceive the world separately and you cannot see and perceive the whole context, everything is related to everything. It is the Love that is related to everything. You need to learn to see and perceive these connections, and especially that Love connects and interconnects everything in your lives, and that is what all the Archangels are teaching you, showing you, and bringing into your lives.

The Renaissance was about Love. It brought beauty to people's lives, because beauty is Love, it brought dignity to human beings, because dignity is Love, and restored sacred love between man and woman.

Renaissance showed this on love stories such as Romeo and Juliet because Love is a sacred feeling between man and woman, and it's not about money, it's not about property, it's not about power, it's not even about sex.

That is why there has been such development of art, music, painting, and sculpture in the Renaissance because beauty helps you to see and perceive Love, so nowadays you should try to return to beauty in art, to the natural beauty you see in nature created by Mother Earth. This beauty is pure, sincere, deep, yet simple and natural. This beauty will then help you to see Love in your lives.

If you find this Love in your lives, then you will begin to see the Truth in the light of Love and thus bring back Justice into your society. This is because the Law is valid both up and down, both in large and small, and both internally and externally. What you have inside you radiates outside.

If you do not have Justice in yourself, then Justice will not be in your society as well. You cannot have Justice within you if you do not know how to Forgive yourself.

You do not know how to Forgive yourself if you do not have compassion and compassionate love in your heart.

You have no compassion if you have not taken responsibility for everything that happens in your life and what you experience.

You cannot take responsibility because your pride will not allow it, because if you did, you would have to stop feeling like a victim.

Every injustice in your life mirrors and shows you something.

It mirrors and shows you what you do not accept, what you do not see consciously, but also what you do not want to consciously see.

So you would have to take responsibility for everything inside you and for everything around you and in your life. It is the Law of Conservation of Energy that says that everything you create in your thoughts, words, feelings, emotions and deeds remains your part.

Each of your thoughts is the energy you create, so you need to learn to create your thoughts with Love.

The thought is a tool of creation, whether you admit it or not, and that is why it is so important that you create beauty because it is Love.

The Renaissance was about beauty.

Start returning beauty to your lives, art and architecture.

It is a point of view, how you look at things, that disables you be honest with yourself. By superficial judging and generalizing, these books have been condemned to be full of sex, and you have not understood the profound message that they have brought to you.

What was essential and what remained in your unconscious levels is that it was her deep Love that healed him, precisely through Forgiveness.

You could see how her Love helped him return his Trust in himself and how Love had given him back Freedom.

Only then did he become himself, a human being filled with Love when he became free. Then, thanks to this Love, he was able to act. And this is the important message of these books.

You were not honest with yourself, and you couldn't tell that you liked the books, that they spoke to you, even though, back then, you didn't understand why they spoke to you.

What appealed to you was the transformation of man, the way he changed when Love healed him. You have also gone through the process of healing with Love and Forgiveness, and you have also changed when Love healed You.

Research on how often you lie during the day is not at all random.

This is related to the fact that you are not being honest with yourself, and therefore you are deceiving yourself.

And what you have inside you, you also experience outside. That is why there is so much charade, falsehood and insincerity in your society.

Sincerity is part of Justice.

Question: Even I didn't realize the message of these books, why was that so?

Answer: Because people lifted up sex to another level.

It is a way of women sell themselves out of different purposes and therefore they do not see what is important at all. This is being disseminated by society, and society basically creates it because it is run by men who want this as they are the users of it.

Thus, the true value of Love and Justice is overshadowed by something completely different, and that is presented as Truth and right, and that is put to the unconscious levels of all humanity.

That's why people take it as a norm that it's okay.

Even women have taken it for their own, so their inner value is very low and they give themselves to men or women not only for money but also for certain benefits, for anything that gets them somewhere, so women also accepted it as something normal and Love has gone away from all hearts of human beings.
