

EQUALITY - Part 4.

If these beings decide to stay in this union for whatever reason, it's okay, because, from the perspective of the Cosmic law of Knowledge, they can enrich each other with the experience and emotions they share in that union.

However, if any of these beings freely chooses to leave that union, the other human being, if she/he respects the Law of Free Will, she/he will do so in deep Love, Appreciation and Respect.

And that is not the case in your society because you do not understand, do not comprehend the Law of Free Will and do not respect the free decision as such.

And with this, I mean that you do not respect not only the free decisions of others but not even your own free decisions, too.

And this is because you still do not understand and do not comprehend what it means to freely decide.

And you are not free to make decisions because you do not perceive objective truth, accept false images that fear creates in your society, which presents to you as objective truth, and therefore you still cannot see and perceive the consequences of your decisions in a broader context and therefore fail to take responsibility for your decisions.

And another circle is formed, it is because you cannot accept RESPONSIBILITY, you cannot make FREE DECISIONS.

Similarly, you cannot make FREE DECISION because, without RESPONSIBILITY, you cannot see the consequences of your decisions in a broader context.

And when RESPONSIBILITY is not part of your decisions, you DO NOT MAKE FREE DECISIONS.

And just as you are being presented with false images as objective truth, you are being presented with false image of freedom, and this false freedom is just an illusion of freedom because if you make decisions without Responsibility being part of you, your decisions do not respect the conditions for preserving life on Mother Earth, for all beings who live on it and are Equal to each other.

And because you are all interconnected and intertwined, although you decide with the illusion of freedom however without Responsibility in a such a way that you are destroying the conditions for life of any being living on Mother Earth, you are basically destroying your condition for life as well.

And you do so because Responsibility is not part of you, and YOU do not see the consequences of your decisions and actions in a broader context.

And just as fear fills you with the false reality of your life, it fosters the illusion that you make free decisions and by reaching your goal, you basically destroy the conditions for your own life and then fear takes control over you and takes away from you this false illusion of free choice, as well.

And energetically, it is exactly the same image that happens in small, in the union of a man and a woman, and in this way, the same happens in big.

And it is the Cosmic Law: both up and down, both in large and in small, and both inside and out.

Just as these principles are applied in small, so are they in large.

And in both cases, you lose your own FREEDOM

And in both cases, EQUALITY has been lost.

And by losing EQUALITY, the SLAVERY has come, and YOU are losing your free will and therefore yourself because your essence is the soul that was born in that Love and absolute freedom.

And I have already told you that you create the greatest pain in yourself when you give up or lose your own FREEDOM.

And you lose it in the small and so in the big.

And just as it is extremely important that you honour Equality amongst each other, not just in the union of the man and woman but also in within family. The union of the man and woman is the foundation of your society and that creates FAMILY. And as it is important to honour Equality in family, so it is also important that there is Equality on the whole Mother Earth and among all beings living on it.

Here too, you need to honour the Law of Free Will.

And just as you learn to perceive this Law of Free Will in small, among you, for preserving life on Mother Earth, it is very important that you also honour and respect it on a large scale.

It is important to perceive and accept your own EQUALITY, and EQUALITY among all human beings, but also to honour the EQUALITY of all beings who live on Mother Earth as well as Mother Earth itself.

Thus you can perceive, see and understand how are EQUALITY, Free will, Responsibility, but also Humility connected and intertwined.

And be aware that, on the one hand, when you give up your FREE WILL or your EQUALITY or is taken away from you, so on the other hand in both cases the HUMILITY will be lost in your society.

Only when you are in the CENTRE of an imaginary pendulum, you can create, see and perceive the BALANCE and HARMONY.

If you deviate from this position to one side or another, you will always create ENSLAVEMENT in your society, where some are oppressed and less valuable, and others are superior and govern.

That is why BALANCE and HARMONY are so important.

And the BALANCE and HARMONY bring EQUALITY.

And EQUALITY also gives you back the ability to make free decisions and take Responsibility for your decisions, because when you are in the middle, you are in your HEART, and then you create your thoughts, words, decisions and deeds based on Love, and Love is your essence.

And then you are in harmony with yourself, with your soul, spirit, Creator and all the Universe.

It may have been more complicated to explain, but I wanted to tell you and show you that everything that is in the small, what you do, although subconsciously, you also create in large.

To make the change in large, you have to change it first in small, that is in yourself, each one of you.

To be able to change each one of you in yourself, you need to ACCEPT it first, because you cannot change what you fight against and what you do not accept.

It is you who created all problems, worries and uncomfortable situations in your life. And if you accept it in Love, truly understand it with all your being and your consciousness and find COMPASSION in your heart, only then you can FORGIVE YOURSELF and all energies will dissolve in Love of your Forgiveness.

Here and now, if you freely and consciously choose to do so, you can FORGIVE YOURSELF for giving all those promises and oaths to your partners.

And I (name) I forgive myself that I have given a being (name) who is my spouse, wife, partner, all promises and oaths, whether in good faith or by force.

Today I accept my Equality to this being and I am very grateful that I could understand it.

And I (name) accept my experience, which I have experienced on both sides of the pendulum.

And I (name) give you (name) back, all the promises you have made in good faith or by force and give you back your promise of devotion, obedience, submission, loyalty and return your free will and the right to make decisions about yourself, I give you back your right to make own decisions about your property, your life, your being and your death.

It is your sacred right, and I (name) freely, knowingly and with love give it back to you throughout the line of time, through all ages, all spaces and all dimensions.

And so it is and so it becomes here and now, now and forever. Amen

And I (name) knowingly give you (name) back your promise that wherever I may be, you will always find me, you will love me forever and will be my spouse/partner forever.

I consciously give you back your promise that you will always love me, you will always win me over and you will do everything to marry me or to be with me.

I consciously give you back your words and energies of this promise throughout the line of time through all ages, all spaces and all dimensions and so it is and so it becomes here and now, now and forever. Amen.

You are free.

You have the right to decide freely and you are not obliged to keep this promise any more.

So be in Love! Here and now, now and forever. Amen.

And you (name) have the right to decide freely in the Love that dwells in your heart, not depending on the energy of the promises you have given me.

And I (name) have the same right to make decisions with Love in my heart, not according to the energy of the promises I have taken back and canceled.

And I (name), I forgive myself that I have made you (name) and myself (name) promised all that.

I accept this as a past experience at the level of my soul, spirit and as a human being.

So be in Love! Amen.
