

FAITH AND EXPECTATION - Part 1.

I wanted to know when the moment would come that Faith would become Expectations.

No lift arrived. There was nothing around me, just darkness.

Question: What is the darkness like? Is it warm or cold?

Answer: I do not know what it is like, whether it is pleasant or unpleasant. It's dark everywhere. In the distance, somewhere very deep, there is a dot of light. It is strange, but I feel that the dot of light can be infinitely far and I see it as a small dot, but actually, it is a huge light that, at the same time, can be unimaginably close. Even then, it is a small dot of the size of a pinhead.

Question: And where is the light?

Answer: I don't know if it's a big light that's unimaginably far away, or it's a small spark that is unimaginably close. In both cases, the light appears to be a small dot. It depends on two things:

The first thing is the place, from where I am looking at it, either I can be infinitely distant from the light and then it is a small dot, or I can stand directly under that light, but if it's just a spark, it is also just a small dot for me.

The second thing is that it depends on my inner set-up to understand and be able to realize in the darkness whether I am standing in front of a small sparkle that is why it seems to me small or I am infinitely distant from a huge light source and that is why it seems to me to be like a small dot. And in that deep darkness where there is nothing, I can, only innerly, distinguish and determine the place and position where I stand and how far I am from the light source.

It is impossible to recognize and determine by any external feature. It can only be recognized from inside of myself.

And this came to me, but I am still not in a position to recognize it.

I don't know which of these two options, it is. I really don't know it.

In the first case, I just have to stretch my hand out and have the light dot on my palm, and in the second case, the light spot is infinitely distant from me and is actually unreachable for me. But I don't know why I can't tell.

Question: So ask why you don't know. Whether it is like the Cosmic Law: both up and down, as in large so in small, and in fact it can be the one or another and it only depends on how I focus the centre of my attention?

Answer: I don't know yet.

Question: So ask, whether some lift will finally come?

Answer: No lift will come.

It's about our own fear. The fear took our COURAGE because it was enough just to stretch that hand and touch the light dot that is so close in front of us, just as small as a pinhead, and when I stretch out my hand I have it in my palm. But the fear took my COURAGE to stretch that hand. Because when I stretch it and the dot of light does not lie on my palm, I stand in the place where the second option applies, that means that the dot of light is infinitely far away from me and therefore from where I stand it is unreachable for me. And at this moment I don't have the COURAGE to stretch my hand and see for myself where I stand. I'm really afraid to do it. And for some reason, I can't even tell where I stand. I know and I realize that I should be able to determine it innerly but I don't know. And I am really afraid that I will do it outwardly not innerly, because if I do it from the outside and stretch my hand out, the light dot won't lie on my palm. Thus I lose all hope that the light that is so infinitely, INFINITELY FAR, could be someday within my reach.

And this Light is for some reason immensely important to me as a human being. And if I don't have it, I can't live here, and at the same time I know I'll melt away and become part of the darkness around me. For my life, here on Mother Earth, I need the LIGHT. It may be as small as a pinhead, but I need it to be part of it. And if it happens that the light goes out in me, then I will dissolve as a human being and become part of this darkness and I die in the physical being.

There was a wonderful warm energy, which entered my whole body.

Every human being comes to Mother Earth with this light inside. If the light goes out in her, she needs to regain it and put it inside of her to illuminate and lighten up her path of life.

And that light is the LIGHT OF FAITH with which you come to Mother Earth and with which you are born.

But if you allow fear to turn this light off, you will fall into the darkness of hopelessness that is all around you. And the darkness around you is hopelessness.

And if you don't have the Light of Faith in you, you can't see whether the light is in front of you or whether it is infinitely far away from you. You can't recognize it, and at the same time, fear has taken absolutely all the COURAGE to try it yourself. And since you cannot see it innerly and at the same time do not have the Courage to stretch out your hand, you will remain hopeless in the darkness for the rest of your life. Then you die as human beings and your souls will merge with that darkness of hopelessness.

Once again came the beautiful warm energy, which overwhelmed me.

And know that at this moment, and remember it well, ALWAYS, ALWAYS, ABSOLUTELY ALWAYS, at all times, this LIGHT is in front of you and you have it at your fingertips so that it could shine on your palm and become part of you again. It has ALWAYS been so since the birth of the Universe.

Only the fear, tries to tell you that the light is infinitely far away from you and has become unreachable for you. It does it by turning off the Light of Faith and by taking away our Courage.

And if you believe him, you can't find a way out in that hopeless life because you don't have the Light of Faith inside you that shines on your way and shows you where to walk so you can come out of that darkness and get out with the Light of Faith and so again find Trust, Faith and Hope.

This Light of Faith is within your reach. Only fear tells you that it is infinitely distant and therefore unreachable for you.

Once again came the beautiful warm energy, which overwhelmed me.

Therefore, remember and accept the knowledge that the Light of Faith, ALWAYS and at all times is within your reach and when you reach out, I will put it in your palm. And this Light of Faith, when you put inside of you, in your heart and soul, will help you to find Love again in your Life and restore Faith and Trust in yourself, in Life, in Love, in God, in the Creator and in the Universe as such.

This is a fake game of fear it began playing with you to take away your Faith, but at the same time to take away the knowledge how to restore your Faith. This knowledge was given to you at the beginning of Being.

And fear took the knowledge that the Light of Faith is ALWAYS at your fingertips.

And by taking this Knowledge from you, it creates in you and in your society, a very deep abyss of hopelessness from which you, as individuals and also as a society, can hardly get out because this false image has taken you the Knowledge that the Light of Faith is ALWAYS at your fingertips.

Did you get it? Yes

Now, I took the Light. I stopped worrying. I stretch out my hand and put the Light in, and the darkness dissolved away. Now the Light is everywhere and there is no darkness anymore.

And I actually stood in a beautiful country I had never seen before.
