

POWER OF FEAR – Part 4.

PAIN is part of fear.

As FORGIVENESS is a tool of unconditional LOVE, PAIN is a tool of FEAR.

Depending on the pain you carry in your heart, you will be able to judge how a human being is in a grip of fear. The more pain it has inside, the more it is controlled and manipulated by fear. The greater the power of fear, the less we can make decisions through our heart with love. Pain and fear are inseparable and indivisible.

If you learn to understand and perceive these connections, it will be easy for you to help, cure and heal human beings, to open their hearts to unconditional love.

With every human being you heal, there will be more and more Love on earth.

Human beings will stop fighting against fear, and there will be more and more human beings on earth who will live in love and with love. There will be more human beings who have stopped fighting fear. They will stop giving their energy to fear, and there will be less and less of it on Earth.

Be especially aware of how everything is related to everything.

In this way, I also teach you that everything is related to everything. I am trying to explain and pass on this knowledge to you, step by step.

Bear in mind that you need to have patience and kindness to yourself and to other human beings.

It is the path of Love, unconditional and compassionate.

This road is really very kind to everyone. There is only LOVE and FORGIVENESS.

There is no fighting.

Feel it, and realize it very deeply.

It is the only way to return Love to Earth.

It is the only way we can return to the original harmony of being.

Nowhere on this road have I mentioned the need to fight against fear.

Realize it very deeply.

At the same time, be aware of the indivisible parts of Love - Faith, Trust and Hope.

Work with the Love Tool, which is Forgiveness.

It is an instrument that has immense power.

This tool dissolves, cures and heals all, all the pain created by fear.

Forgiveness is the only tool that has boundless and infinite power.

MANKIND STILL DOES NOT REALIZE THE POWER OF THE TOOL THAT IS FORGIVENESS.

Mankind does not understand the depth, essence and extent of the word FORGIVENESS.

If mankind learns to understand it, if it grasps the depth of the word, it will unconditionally forgive all the pain of mankind.

Nowadays, the meaning of the word FORGIVENESS is disgraced. Mankind uses it only as a word with letters. It does not give it its meaning, power and depth. That's why society can't even use it. It is important to explain people the depth, extent and essence of the word, so they realize what will really happen if truly forgive with all heart, soul, whole being.

It is another knowledge that has been taken away from mankind by fear because when mankind has ceased to understand that forgiveness is an instrument of unconditional love, it has lost the instrument of curing and healing itself. Fear replaced forgiveness by fighting.

Fear has done so deliberately, because the struggle and energy that human beings put into battle strengthens and nourishes fear, while in forgiveness fear dissolves, it loses its strength and power. Therefore, fear deliberately took this knowledge from mankind.

Human beings, manipulated and controlled by fear, could not recognize this false illusion. They accepted the fight as a false tool for treating their pain. But, mankind knows that no pain was ever healed by fight, on the contrary, only more pain, more hatred, more anger, and more fear was created. Fear thus achieved what it wanted. Mankind has ceased to use FORGIVENESS as an instrument of unconditional love to heal itself and heal its pain. Instead, mankind began to use the fight, not realizing that the fight was an instrument of fear to reinforce and nourish itself. Again, realize how everything relates to everything. Feel that everything is in a circle, it's not a straight line, it's all in a circle. Fear fought again, and it created more pain. Mankind fought against pain, and fight kept on strengthen fear. It is important that mankind realizes that this whole circle can be dissolved in Love - by unconditional forgiveness.

Another knowledge that has been taken by fear is the meaning of the word UNCONDITIONAL-WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

You do not understand the meaning of the word WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

You still create restrictions, limits, rules, regulations, prejudices, beliefs that you then follow in your life and so in your life you are constantly creating the conditions that you are forced to fulfil.

I felt the wonderful energy coming in, it was like warmth on my chest.

BUT LIFE WAS DESIGNED WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

By having all the conditions, you cannot accept life in its flow. You are still fighting against what is coming to you. You create expectations or try to fulfil the conditions you have given yourself. All this creates immense tension in you. Because by creating different conditions and limitations, you are taking freedom from yourself and others.

FREEDOM is our essence

FREEDOM is our fundamental and supreme right.

FREEDOM was given to us with our creation.

It does not matter whether you take away your freedom or someone else does it to you. You always create an enormous contradiction in your soul. This creates pain in your soul and I have already explained that pain is a tool of fear. When pain is created by not understanding forgiveness, you begin to fight and once again you are in a circle that is created by fear. It manipulates and controls you again, and has achieved what it wanted and needed again. And that's a fight.

It is important to understand that LIFE HAS BEEN CREATED WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

And it is important for mankind to understand so it would cease to create conditions in which it limits and imprisons itself.

At present, mankind can no longer understand the meaning, depth and extent of the word WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

Over the years, the fear controlled and manipulated human beings and it bounded them deeply with various conditions and limitations so that human beings cannot at all understand what it means WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

They cannot imagine what it means WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

They cannot imagine and understand what it means WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

WITHOUT CONDITIONS was the feeling of freedom that I showed you when you could fly from star to star.

You were accepted WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

You were released WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

It is a feeling of absolute freedom and it is UNCONDITIONAL LOVE.

I will remind you again to realize this connection as it relates to each other.

Question: How does unconditional love and life WITHOUT CONDITIONS relate?

Answer: If you can live your life without conditions, you live your life in unconditional love.

I have told you now what is the instrument of unconditional love - that is forgiveness. Notice how deeply they relate to each other, and if fear could take away one knowledge, how easy it is to take away the others.

Just as FAITH, HOPE, TRUST and LOVE are related, so are related FORGIVENESS, UNCONDITIONAL LOVE and LIFE WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

This makes it easier for you to realize how deeply connected it is and how fear, pain, and fight relate to each other. If mankind can accept this knowledge, if this knowledge becomes part of you, you can dissolve pain with unconditional love and forgiveness, you stop fighting, and fear will disappear on Earth.

Fear dissolves in UNCONDITIONAL LOVE.
