

RESPONSIBILITY – part 2.

And today, you stand as mankind, at the crossroads and you can choose which path you want to follow, and the only thing you need to do in order to choose the right one, is that each of you accepts its own RESPONSIBILITY.

And although in every single message I tell you about Responsibility, you cannot understand its meaning. You cannot understand the energetic meaning of this word in such a way that it becomes a part of you.

RESPONSIBILITY is that you can find the courage within yourself and express in your words, decisions and actions what you feel in yourself and stop relying on someone else to do it for you.

If you do not express what you feel in yourself, this is also your RESPONSIBILITY.

If you expect someone else to do what you feel in yourself, this is also your RESPONSIBILITY.

And it is your RESPONSIBILITY for not acting.

And in this case, you often delegate your RESPONSIBILITY to others because you accuse them of not doing what YOU wanted them to do.

So you give up your RESPONSIBILITY and throw it at the shoulders of other human beings, which in this way creates in them feelings of guilt and unforgiveness.

It is important that you begin to perceive RESPONSIBILITY in the broader context of both your actions and your non-actions.

And it is important that you also accepted RESPONSIBILITY in this wider context.

So any one of you who feels that it is not right to cut or burn entire hillsides, valleys, or large areas of forests, it is very important to speak out and take action against it. If you just expect the others to do so, then no one will do anything about it, no one will act against it.

Although YOU did not burn the trees yourself, you did not cut them, YOU bear the responsibility of destroying them because you were silent.

Because you were silent and did not oppose it, even if you felt it inside of you, you allowed those other beings who decided to do so, that they would not accept and bear their RESPONSIBILITY for their actions. And they threw this RESPONSIBILITY on you just through your silence and failure to act.

And that's because everything is related to everything.

And this is another closed circle in which, however, you do not accept your own RESPONSIBILITY, but accept the RESPONSIBILITY of those who transfer it to you.

And this is a program that fear has written down and implanted it as a seed in human beings.

And with this program, fear creates a lot of pain in you, because the delegated RESPONSIBILITY creates much greater feelings of guilt and unforgiveness than your own.

And this is because you can work with the energy of your own feelings of guilt and unforgiveness, but not with the energy of guilt and unforgiveness of the others.

And here the Law of Conservation of Energy applies and that is why it is so difficult for you as human beings because the Law tells you that you can only change the energies you have created in yourself.

Therefore, you can change the energy of your own feelings of guilt and unforgiveness, but you cannot change the energy of those you have accepted as your own.

You can only handle this pain when you become so conscious beings that you will realize these transferred feelings of guilt and unforgiveness that are not your own, and at the same time, you will understand that you carry someone else's responsibility on your shoulders and return that responsibility back to those human beings who created it.

YOU cannot change the energy of transferred feelings of guilt and unforgiveness, because YOU have not created these energies.

You can only return those energies to the one who created them.

And because everything is related to everything, there is another phenomenon that beings who do not accept and do not bear their own RESPONSIBILITY and throw it on your shoulders and you carry it for them. These beings thus continue in their reckless behaviour, actions and decisions because they do not feel any guilt in them, nor any RESPONSIBILITY for how they make decisions and act.

And this opens up the scissors of injustice in your society, because, on the one hand, the recklessness, arrogance and self-importance of those who decide and act without a sense of RESPONSIBILITY grows, and on the other, the pain, injustice, feelings of guilt, unforgiveness and pressure of those who take that RESPONSIBILITY and bear it on their shoulders gets bigger.

And in this way ENSLAVEMENT is created in human society.

And now realize that it took you very, very long time in human society to dissolve this enslavement. Until you closed these scissors of injustice, where, on the one hand, the arrogance, superiority and self-importance of the mighty ones grew, and on the other, the humiliation, suffering and enslavement of all those who bear the burden of Responsibility on their shoulders got bigger.

And FREEDOM, in particular, has helped you to close these scissor.

And FREEDOM is a great gift that human society gets during its development.

If, however, society does not understand this gift and does not accept FREEDOM together with the RESPONSIBILITY for its decisions and actions, the society will again start to open up the scissors of injustice.

And if on one hand, there is a group of human beings which does not accept its responsibility and yet decides and acts in society, and on the other hand, there is a group of human beings which despites this behaviour however still accepts it and remains silent, then these scissors open up faster.

And this is a closed circle in which FREEDOM helps you dissolve the ENSLAVEMENT, but if you do not understand it and take responsibility for your thoughts, words, decisions and deeds, then FREEDOM will return to you ENSLAVEMENT.
