

ATTACHMENT - Part 2.

And now, as an example, I will explain another false picture that you are not yet able to see and perceive.

Many women in your society fight with their spouse or partner and do not even realize it. As women, you fight because precisely your inner wife has been fighting your inner man for a very long time.

And I am not telling you this only in relation to women but generally to all human beings because you can be born once as a woman and another time as a man. While being here on Mother Earth, you have experienced a lot of experiences whether you are now born as a woman or a man.

Only when every woman finds inner peace and reconciliation with herself and stops fighting inside of her against her inner man, can she then stop fighting outside.

And it is a paradox that the woman does not see and perceive because this shows the desperation, helplessness and powerlessness of her inner man whom she does not accept, she denies his existence and he can not do anything to make her accept him as her part and so this powerlessness is mirrored from the outside. That is why she does not understand, she does not see and perceive the objective truth that is trying to show itself to her in this way.

The woman, however, perceives only the false image presented to her by her ego in her head, precisely because she has no Compassion for her inner man. And she has no compassion for him nor mercy with him, for she denied him utterly, as a whole.

And she did so because in her previous life she could not accept her pain, the pain of mother-wife.

And this pain was so great for the woman in that past life that she needed to create for herself someone who was guilty and responsible for the pain she carries in her heart.

And so she threw the blame on the inner man and did not accept the experience she had lived in that past life and totally erased this experience from herself and that is why she does not see outwardly that SHE is the one who still creates this fight. She does not see that just as she fights and does not accept her inner man inside of her hence in the physical world she cannot accept her husband or partner, although she does so unwittingly.

And precisely because she cannot accept her inner man as part of her, she cannot accept her spouse or partner in the physical world and this action is subconscious. It takes place on the subconscious level. And it is precisely the non-acceptance that keeps on creating this fight.

And both her inner man and that material, physical man long for acceptance which she cannot give them because she still fights with them.

And that fight creates resistance and rejection and that is why there are arguments between them and that husband or partner shouts or they both shout at each other but the woman does not understand it because she cannot see and perceive the objective truth. And this is just one example of many that can occur.

And now, as another example, I'll explain a false image that again, you can't see and perceive and that creates a lot of pain in you.

In your lives it sometimes happens that when children grow up they leave not only from the parent's home but also from their parents' lives and no longer want to meet their parents, nor do they allow their parents to meet with their grandchildren. Let me explain why this happens.

First of all, it is necessary to realize that it is the Responsibility of your children.

It is an experience they need to survive but YOU as parents do not accept it. Therefore, as parents, you subconsciously fight against the decisions of your children. This is the subconscious level and that energy of fight that is created by this subconscious fight only reinforces and confirms the decision of your children.

And due to this non-acceptance of those parents, it happens that the children leave parents' lives and it is because they are supposed to live their lives and make their own experiences that they need to experience.

And often this happens because in the past life it was these parents who were trying to turn their child into their own image and this child tried to defend against it. And in order to prevent this from happening, the child tries to be the furthest from those parents but it's about the lived experience and its acceptance. Then through that TRUTH, comes the LESSON, that is: by trying to turn the child into their own image which they succeeded to do by force in that past life, they did not allow the child to live the life that the child wanted.

In today's life here and now, it is an extremely immense fear of that child, stored in his subconscious level which controls him, for he is afraid that it will happen again.

And there is the energy of helplessness because the child could not change it in that past life.

And she/he didn't have the strength and courage to stand up to her/his parents and go away.

And even that fear and helplessness ultimately created an energy of anger and hatred that put the child and parents against each other.

If here and now, those parents can accept this as their experience with COMPASSION in the HEART, without creating resistance, then they can dissolve resistance and rejection and allow them to transform into the energy of Love so in those other lives it will no longer be necessary to relive that experience because it will become part of them.

Love through that acceptance, transcribes and change vibration wise the previous experiences from previous lives into the energy of Love.

And it is about HUMILITY because only HUMILITY allows you, human beings to accept it unconditionally.

And you already know that if HUMILITY is not part of you, you can not perceive nor accept RESPONSIBILITY, not just as a word but as energy, as a huge coat that can wrap and accommodate all your thoughts, words or decision and deeds.

RESPONSIBILITY is not just a word because with a word you can't embrace and wrap all your thoughts, words, decisions and actions because letters don't have that ability.

It's something that is much, much, GREATER, something that can absorb the greatness of created thoughts and their energy.

And if you create this RESPONSIBILITY in yourself so then with this RESPONSIBILITY you can accept, grasp, embrace - any words, thoughts, decisions, and deeds, it is the RESPONSIBILITY that will return your COMPASSION.

It is COMPASSION that brings you back HUMILITY so you can ACCEPT AND FORGIVE YOURSELF all unconditionally because the energy and vibration of LOVE OF FORGIVENESS is the right vibration that has the power within to transform and change all previous energies that were created by those emotions in the past, into LOVE.

And this is a closed circle that is healing that can change it all and transform it again into LOVE and now, through unconditional acceptance, it can only change because back then, in the past life, it wasn't possible. And it will change through that COMPASSION for the child and for yourself, precisely through unconditional acceptance. This is the energy of Love that changes and transforms it all.

To better understand and comprehend the energies that have been created in that past life, I will explain to you that these parents by wanting to turn their child to their image, in their own way, they did not allow the child to create the family and live with this family that he has in this life - here and now.

Question: Is there here and now the fear in the child that those parents could hurt him again?

Answer: It is not about hurting but it is about the fact that it did not happen. The past life was not fulfilled because back then the child did not even create the family he has today.

And that's why they are all together again in this life - here and now to change it.

And you already know that fear can strengthen itself.

The fact that parents do not accept this situation in themselves strengthens the past life fear that the child has stored in him at the subconscious levels and subsequently this past life fear is reinforced by the fear created in this life.

And in this way, fear strengthens itself. However, the child does not knowingly realise that this is happening in him.

Question: So should parents try to contact the child or not?

Answer: It all changes when the energy of Love transforms it.

And it happens when those parents can accept it in themselves without conditions and in Compassion give Forgiveness to themselves, to their child and to their partners, without conditions.

And it is about HUMILITY, RESPONSIBILITY, COMPASSION, ACCEPTANCE and unconditional FORGIVENESS because one thing leads to another and vice versa.

And know that if any of them are lost, even if only one of them is lost, all of them will be lost because one without the other does not work, does not materialise and so the originally created energies can not be transformed into the energy of Love. You need to have all of them there. And it's because HUMILITY and COMPASSION is not automatically part of you.

HUMILITY and COMPASSION come to you as a GIFT once you understand that and once you can live your life in accordance with the Cosmic Laws. These are the higher principles of the Cosmic Laws and then you will be given this as a GIFT, as a BLESSING.

Only when you can accept these gifts and blessings will you be able to make these profound transformations of those negative energies from past lives into the energy of LOVE and this is the essence of the word „MIRACLE,,.

This is the essence of what human beings can do when their hearts are filled with Love and Compassion. It is the transformation of those negative energies into the energy of LOVE and LOVE can change it in a single moment. And that's the „MIRACLE,,.

Question: Can people do this too?

Answer: Gradually. It is a matter of realizing, accepting experience as an objective truth, where BLESSING comes in a form of LESSON LEARNED and in the past, many people have been able to do these miracles. It is part of human beings.

It is a matter of that particular human being when he will allow himself that this experience becomes his conscious part again and learn to use them consciously again. Therefore, gifts and abilities come to you gradually but in fact, it's about how you can consciously grasp them.

This is the “initiation” that you have gone through in past lives in those schools where you have learned this Knowledge and how the Cosmic laws work, how these energies are created, how they interact with each other, how they transform but also how they can be abused.

And the result of the misuse of this Knowledge is what you now call black magic.

And that's because you live here on Earth in duality.

Therefore, everything you create can be LIGHT but also the opposite that is DARKNESS.

And whether you give birth to LIGHT or to the DARKNESS this depends on your INTENTION that means, it absolutely depends on the purity of your thoughts.
