

ATTACHMENT - Part 4.

If the other human being in this life still had not consciously grasped WHAT AND WHO SHE IS and if she could not stand up for herself, for her thoughts, words, decisions, and actions, then she can not find COMPASSION in herself to accept it all and understand it all and thus the gap between them would deepen and widen.

If the other human being already has COMPASSION in her and can forgive her partner, then what separates them does not increase nor deepen But she can only act and change energies within herself.

The energy created by her partner alone can only be changed by himself.

That is why he still creates the gap between the two of them and that is why it is not diminishing.

Each of you and therefore every human being is Responsible for her/himself.

Therefore, a human being who already has the COMPASSION inside can accept the experience and the lessons from it in that particular life however that the other one may not succeed to do it in that life.

If she can accept him with compassion as he is, together with his fear and helplessness thus she will close up the created abyss on her side by her COMPASSION.

However, if she starts to behave in such a way that she would want to change the partner onto her image so the gap between them would increase.

Hence, ACCEPTANCE is extremely important.

And not only of ourselves but also the acceptance of others and unconditional acceptance, not only of us but also of others.

If you can do this, then you do not create any energy of RESISTANCE.

You create everything by your essence i.e. by LOVE and COMPASSION which is part of you. And you can create it precisely because HUMILITY is part of you because only HUMILITY when it becomes your part, allows you to accept everything without any conditions.

Therefore, when you can ACCEPT everything, you can float through your life in LOVE and without resistance. And then, whatever situation in your life occurs, you will always remain calm because LOVE, COMPASSION, HUMILITY and RESPONSIBILITY which you can already accept in the broader context, can keep you in your own center.

So, despite what is happening around you, you are in harmony with yourself and with the Love that you are.

And this is the state of CONSCIOUS BEING.

In this state, YOU, with your thoughts, consciously create the reality that you live.

MIRACLES happen in this state.

Very few human beings can remain in this state permanently.

It is a state of mind similar to „ENLIGHTENMENT,, and you, human beings, you cannot live your lives consciously because you cannot control your emotions, thoughts and you did not learn to accept your RESPONSIBILITY and thus you can not accept responsibility for your words, decisions and deeds.

Nowadays, energetically, for the way of life in your human society, it is rather an exception if someone can live like this. This is because the APPRECIATION and RESPECT for LIFE as such is not a part of your human society.

And APPRECIATION and RESPECT have been lost because the EQUALITY is not part of you but you have embraced superiority as a way of your life and being on Mother Earth.

And precisely because the EQUALITY is not part of you, you do not see the objective truth but accept false images as the reality of your life.

And because you can't see the objective truth, JUSTICE has been lost from your society.

If you also lose JUSTICE, if you stop understand what JUSTICE means, you will lose your FREEDOM.

If you lose FREEDOM, ENSLAVEMENT will return to your society.

And this is a closed circle in which you have been around for a very long time and in which one day, you will find and accept Justice, Objective Truth, Freedom and Responsibility and then you can make decisions in Love with Compassion, Appreciation and Respect for life as such.

And that means you give that Appreciation, Respect and Compassion to yourself and also to other human beings, to Mother Earth, and to all life forms, they are also part of your being and if your society reaches this point, then the EQUALITY returns and becomes part of your society, the JUSTICE returns as well and you will be able to see OBJECTIVE TRUTH and the SACRED LOVE will return into your relationships as such, where there is also APPRECIATION, RESPECT and mutual TRUST.

And as it is not in you, it is not in the society and then you cannot even live it in relation to yourself. And this is also a picture of how your society works and the relationships between men and women work in your society.

And this is the broader context.

And if this happens in your society that there are human beings who will CONSCIOUSLY work to honour and respect themselves, to Forgive themselves and to see Justice and Objective Truth and consciously accept Responsibility for their thoughts, words, decisions and deeds will gradually begin to form communities of like-minded, similarly sentient and responsive people in society so this deep Appreciation, Respect, Compassion and Responsibility will gradually return to the human collective consciousness where the other human beings can read it again.

But it also applies that if ignorance instead of Responsibility will reside in human beings and they accept it, they will create recklessness and arrogance instead of Appreciation and Respect and instead of Compassion they will create heartlessness and then other human beings will join them and so they will begin to form a community, they write the indifference, ruthlessness, arrogance and heartlessness into the human collective consciousness, where everyone can read it and use it as a pattern of behaviour for themselves.

And if they embrace this model of indifference, arrogance, heartlessness, and recklessness, then the Justice, Objective Truth will gradually be lost from society and Freedom will follow and again your society will be captivated by ENSLAVEMENT.

And these are all tools of fear to anchor himself on Mother Earth and the boundary is very thin and fragile.

And this is because the Balance of Life on Mother Earth is very, very fragile.

And again, the Universal Law applies: both up, down, as in large so it is in small and both inside and out, and this delicate balance of life on Mother Earth is also very fragile in yourself.

And it depends only on you, human beings, only you matter what energies you create inside because these energies influence you fundamentally.

These energies influence each one's life, have an impact on you as a human being in matter, they influence not only your physical body but they also work in the spiritual area where they have an impact on whether you experience Love, Joy, Happiness or worry, unhappiness and fear in your life.

And what you experience, this depends on your thoughts.

And you create the acceptance or the non-acceptance in your thoughts. Therefore, your thoughts and both the way you think and create your thoughts, are so important to you.

And it is up to you, it is your free choice, whether you create your thoughts in Love or in fear.

And accordingly, then you live the reality of your lives here on Mother Earth.

And so it is.

And one more thing.

If you create a non-acceptance in any form to any human being, energetically that non-acceptance creates a feeling of humiliation and anger for the other human being.

It is precisely this non-acceptance that, if it takes too long, he transforms it into hatred, which he then turns from inside out towards you because he feels helpless and cannot do anything about your non-acceptance. He cannot change it and he is angry with himself that he cannot change it, nor force you to accept him and therefore this creates helplessness and hatred that he then turns against you and act against you. He talks about you with this attitude of hatred and helplessness, it is what guides his thoughts and decides what actions he will do to you.

Therefore, COMPASSION and awareness of your RESPONSIBILITY for yourself and for everything that you create are so important.

The energy level is therefore so important because it is not visible to you through your physical eyes - physical eyesight. Therefore, it is important that HUMILITY is part of you so that you can accept yourself and others in HUMILITY and COMPASSION. For when you condemn a second human being, you condemned yourself, even though you don't know about it.

And all the energies that you create are part of you and that is why they then make up the reality of what YOU live.

And that's why it is the Responsibility of the human being for how her partner treats her and that they argue, though she doesn't see it. And if all previous Knowledge had not become part of her, she would not be able to accept this Responsibility for what was going on in her life.

She, with her thoughts of wanting to leave her partner, creates fear and helplessness in him that he feels and does not know what to do to prevent the humiliation of himself.

And the partner also becomes afraid that when she goes away, she takes what belongs to her but what he, as a human being in his Knowledge thinks it belongs only to him.

Therefore, though unconsciously in the present life, on the basis of the energies stored in his subconscious past life, he forces the other human being to legally transform the property that he or she owns because then the other human being will no longer have and possess anything and everything will belong only to him.

And the fear in him convinced him that if she has nothing and owns nothing, she would not leave him, for she alone could not make a living without him.

And by creating the absolute material attachment of that human being, the fear created in him false expectation that she would never leave him.

But it is only his conviction, his image that he created about the other human being and does not see the essence of this, that it is just a picture of himself because he has an absolute attachment to property and to matter however the other human being does not have this attachment.

That is why he acts and thinks as he does and he thinks that it is the image of the other human being and he does not see that it is his own image of himself.

The image of his attachment to matter, money and property.

And as he is dominated by this attachment, he is deeply convinced that the other human being is also controlled by this attachment because he has created this image of her in himself.

The huge iron ball that came with an infinitely long chain of iron loops at the beginning, represents this attachment - that is its image.

And once you allow it to hang on us, then it keeps you in its power for as prolonged is the endless chain made of iron loop.

And yet you need to realize that attachment is not only to property but it could be any attachment to anything or anyone.
