

CRUELTY - Part 2.

Now I am not talking about the HUMILITY that you see in the church where you are hitting your chest and saying „my guilt, my guilt,, because this is not HUMILITY.

I am talking about a completely different HUMILITY.

In the church, it is a false humility because it is pretended and compulsory but it is not sincere.

HUMILITY comes from the purity of the human heart that is filled with LOVE, COMPASSION and MERCY.

The qualities of love such as HUMILITY, COMPASSION and MERCY, you will get as a gift once you realise and accept your own responsibility, i.e. when you absolutely understand the Law of Free Will.

This gift given to you at your birth, that is to say, the ABILITY TO FORGIVE is related and very closely linked to the Law of Free Will because you can freely choose to FORGIVE but you can also freely choose NOT TO FORGIVE and for each of these decisions you need to take RESPONSIBILITY because by this decision you will create two basic energies that come together in duality.

If you FORGIVE, you will create the energy of LOVE.

If you DO NOT TO FORGIVE, you create the energy of HATE.

That is why it is your RESPONSIBILITY how you decide.

Sofar you do not understand this RESPONSIBILITY and therefore you do not accept it but it is the alpha and omega of your life because what will your life's reality look like depends on these decisions, on what energy you create and on what energy prevails in your life.

And this is a closed circle.

RESPONSIBILITY as such is the energy that is not visible.

When I go back to the whip, it's like the whip-cracking but the consequences it brings to your life are already visible and that's the SOUND that is materialized by the whip-cracking.

As you perceive, understand and comprehend that the sound was created by cracking the whip and it was your hand that did it, so you need to realize and accept that it is your RESPONSIBILITY for the decision that you made and for its consequences in your life.

DECISION is like YOUR HAND that holds that whip.

RESPONSIBILITY IS LIKE WHIP-CRACKING.

THE CONSEQUENCES are the SOUND you can already hear.

And YOU accept that your hand is holding that whip.

And you also know that you have the right to DECIDE in any way.

And YOU know that YOU cracked that whip.

And you also know that YOU have made your own decisions.

And just as you do not perceive the whip-cracking that makes the sound, so you do not see and accept your RESPONSIBILITY for your DECISIONS although you physically hear the sound that the whip has made and you know that it exists in real life and you do know that the consequences of your decisions will have an impact on you. However, because you do not perceive the energy level of the whip-cracking that creates that sound, you do not accept RESPONSIBILITY for your DECISIONS and even though you see the consequences of your decisions in life, you cannot accept them.

And that is a closed circle.

Just as you know that the sound you hear was caused by cracking the whip, you need to take RESPONSIBILITY for your decisions together with the caused consequences that come with it in your life.

Just as you create HATE with your decisions in your lives so does the HATE create CRUELTY as its materialised consequence in the matter and it will really hit you in your life.

Precisely because cruelty grows exponentially there is no direct correlation between the created HATE and the CRUELTY that strikes you because that CRUELTY is many times greater than the energy of hate you have created.

That's why you have your saying that evil produces only evil and evil multiplies by evil. Remember that you will never create PEACE by fighting.

Therefore, you need to learn to MAKE YOUR DECISIONS IN LOVE and you need to learn to FORGIVE.

Cruelty itself multiplies itself exponentially because cruelty will directly force you to fight.

And I've told you many times and explained that in this fights there are no winners.

Every fight brings a lot of pain, destruction and death on both sides. T

There is no winner or loser in this fight because both sides lose.

And remember this, because history, as it is written, deceives and manipulates you.

Remember that in every fight or war in the entire history of mankind, you have a winner and a loser but it is not that way. For human beings who have participated in the fight and who have died in it, there is no victorious side and a loser side. Likewise, every human being who participated in this fight has caused deep scars and wounds inside themselves. Energetically they all have lost the fight because they planted the seed of hate and consequent cruelty in themselves and precisely these wounds are what needs to be healed and cured by you, in those subsequent lives.

It is only an illusion, deception and manipulation that your history of battles has a winner on one side and a loser on the other side. And it is because you do not see the energy impact.

These energetical wounds and scars that have been created and remain inside you, are not visible just like the wounds of your physical body that you heal immediately because you only care about the physical. And that is why you do not heal these energetical wounds that are deeper inside of you.

You do so because you cannot see the energy impact of these energies and you leave these deep wounds inside you many and many lives open, even deepening them and making them even bigger by your actions, decisions, words and deeds in the following lives.

And this is precisely because you cannot see them physically, that is, with your eyes.

You do so because you cannot take RESPONSIBILITY as such, in your hands to become your integral, inseparable and indivisible part.

RESPONSIBILITY as such is not just a WORD, a cluster of some letters, it is an unimaginably great energy that when you begin to perceive it, when you become aware of it with your CONSCIOUSNESS and when you begin to FEEL it as an energy inside, it will give you immense INNER STRENGTH.

Not the physical power but the INNER STRENGTH.

And now I'll go back to the next comparison that will explain it in more details.

Woman as such, precisely because she is the one who gives life, that new life on Mother Earth, she received as a gift the RESPONSIBILITY for this new life as her natural part and every woman is born with this RESPONSIBILITY on Mother Earth, it is an integral, inseparable and indivisible part of her. And precisely because a woman is physically fragile and physically weaker than a man, internally she is much more powerful than a man.

It is the INNER STRENGTH that will change your DECISION because it can also accept the consequences of your DECISIONS.

Your INNER STRENGTH can realize them and only when this happens, you can decide in FAVOR OF LIFE as such, that is, to PRESERVE LIFE, not only your own life and the life of every single human being but also preserve life on MOTHER EARTH as a whole.

Another thing, that can happen energetically, is that if you use this inner tool for deciding not to forgive, not to accept, not to understand thus you will create the energy of HATE.

It is this energy of HATE that then takes away the RESPONSIBILITY that is part of you because only when you stop being RESPONSIBLE for your DECISIONS you can make decisions against life.

If RESPONSIBILITY remains energy-wise part of you, you will always DECIDE for the benefit of life and never decide against life.

Therefore, every single war that has existed in your history was the decision of those human beings that did not have RESPONSIBILITY.

And remember this, because they decided against life.

Life as such is an enormous gift for every human being, for each human being comes with a mission that he longs to fulfil in that life and it is these decisions against life that prevent human beings from fulfilling their mission.

That is why in times of PEACE on Mother Earth, so many souls incarnate because only in these times can those souls freely fulfil their mission and no one will prevent them from fulfilling their mission. This is one of the reasons why so many human beings are now on Mother Earth. This is because everything is related to everything and this is also the result of your decisions and actions. You are just unaware of this because you do not perceive the impact of these energies and do not accept your RESPONSIBILITY and this is the broader context of the interaction of the Cosmic Laws and the interconnection of these energies.

For you, it is YOU, YOURSELF, what is the most important and in order for this to change in all human society, each one of you must first understand it and make the change within yourself.
