

HUMILITY and ATTACHMENT – part 3.

It is the effect of the Cosmic Law: both up, down, as in large so in small, inside and out and when you understand how it works in small, you can see the parallels in large.

And now you can answer the question: Who thinks he's wearing new clothes and who doesn't see he's naked?

The other level that is being created here is the level of feelings of injustice and betrayal that is created on the side of those human beings who have created this Attachment in themselves to those human beings who they think that they stole of them whatever „it,, was hidden behind the stone ball.

But it didn't really have to happen because when those human beings created the Attachment, they could, by their actions or by the natural passing of time, have lost something that was hidden behind the stone ball.

But they will never admit that they have lost it by their own cause because always there must be someone to blame and to whom they will be held responsible for losing „it,,.

If the other human being accepts this transferred guilt, a very strong and mutual bond is formed between the two human beings i.e. an energy bond and the very strong bond. Then they are born together in subsequent incarnations so that they can understand and dissolve this bonding energy.

And it will continue to be so until the other human being understands that she bears the responsibility on her shoulders for the first human being and that whatever was behind the stone ball has disappeared and she will return the responsibility and the transferred guilt back to the first human being that has created it. Or it will continue to be so till this first human being can accept Humility and Compassion in her life and create a long enough chain to understand and see that there is absolutely nothing behind that stone ball and that only she tied herself up by that Attachment.

In this very understanding, the stone ball of Attachment dissolves and that human being returns herself her FREEDOM she also returns the ability to move freely wherever and freely decide in her Life.

But this process takes a very long time in terms of the Life of the human being because, in the spiral of your own experience, you are not only moving upwards but you may start walking in the opposite direction and thus you are extending that time again.

And this is the energetic reason why SLAVERY was created in your society, it was due to this Attachment to wealth, property or power created by some of your head of pride of superiority, arrogance, haughtiness, false pride, importance, greed, your desire for glory or all heads of pride at the same time.

On the one hand, it is the immense Attachment of those human beings who still want to enlarge and multiply what is hidden behind the stone ball but because they cannot move themselves, they need a lot of other human beings that would do that effort and work for them.

It is the fear of human beings that their power, property and glory should not diminish but on the contrary multiply and grow but the paradox is that they do not see that they have also taken away the right to move freely in life and they voluntarily attach themselves to the stone ball and thus they took their sacred right of other human beings to move and decide freely about their life.

And this is the energy moment when you created SLAVERY.

Slavery was created by this mechanism.

You are repeating it in every civilization that lived here on Mother Earth when that civilization reaches this point because slavery is the result of the action of these energies that you created as a human society.

Now realize how much time had to pass and how long was the journey you had to take as a society but also as individuals in order to abolish this slavery.

On the energy level, by abolishing slavery, you have disbanded that unimaginably large, huge stone ball of that individual, an absolute ruler where the power and wealth were in the hands of one person.

There is a direct ratio.

Just as the unimaginably great power and wealth were concentrated in the hands of one man - the ruler, so many human beings had to create and increase the ruler's power and wealth in slavery by taking away their free will, for energetically it must be balanced out.

On the one hand, there is the energy of the wealth and power of the individual and on the other hand, there is an infinite number of imprisoned human beings who have been deprived of their freedom in order to build that very power and wealth of that individual.

As this energy was released from the hands of the individual, on the other hand, freedom could return to a huge number of human beings and just when you dissolved this Attachment you abolished SLAVERY in your society.

And now it is extremely important that the enormous number of human beings, to whom freedom has been returned, can accept their own responsibility for their Lives, their decisions, deeds, words and thoughts, to begin living their Lives CONSCIOUSLY.

For only when they accept this RESPONSIBILITY and can see it in a broader context, then they will become free human beings and only then will they decide FREELY.

If this does not happen and they do not accept this Responsibility, it will gradually begin to concentrate in the hands of those „chosen ones,, who gradually become attached to the power that this Responsibility brings to them, they will start to create large Attachment, large enough to recreate

ENSLAVEMENT in your society.

And this is a closed circle.

Therefore, it does not matter at all to whom you give your vote in the elections to act and make decisions on your behalf and therefore never try to choose a minor evil.

In this case, it is better not to give your vote to anyone because if you go to vote and decide for a „minor evil,, your vote will count as a mandate for that candidate, even if it is a „minor evil,, for you.

If you do not do so, you will retain your own Responsibility for yourself and no one will be able to attribute your vote because it was passed on to him in any election.

And now realize that the motto „go vote,, is a hidden manipulation because if you are not determined for any candidate then you do not have any Trust, Appreciation and Respect to any of them and then do not give your vote to any candidate because then the candidate you gave your vote to, he will manipulate with your vote. Be aware that if you choose a „minor evil,, and choose a candidate who does not resonate with you then you give consent to what you do not want and who you do not want to vote for.

Keep this Responsibility to yourself so that it is not abused.

The greater the number of human beings in the elections the more votes for the candidates.

Your ancestors elected their leaders to whom they gave their vote, on the basis of a great and profound Trust, Respect and Appreciation for the human being whom they voted.

Currently, in your society there is no Respect and Appreciation, as well as deep Trust, at all.

That is why your politicians steal, cheat and deceive.

And they believe they can afford it because the mandate was given to them and your vote counted in that mandate, even though you didn't have the Trust, Appreciation or Respect for those politicians but you went to vote precisely because someone told you that you have to go to vote and that is why you chose the „less evil,,.

.And you do not see that it is a manipulation and a game of numbers that someone has created and presents it in such a way that he will benefit from it, mostly.

Casting your vote is a very important step and a very important decision for every single human being because it is a manifestation of deep Trust, Appreciation and Respect for the human being whom you give your vote.

And vote only if you feel that Respect, Appreciation and Mutual Trust.

Such a person whom you give your vote will never disappoint you because you know him very intimately.

You could convince yourself many times of his honesty, truthfulness, morality and in this case this being decides and acts in favour of the development of that society.

But if you do not have this feeling in yourself, do not give the vote to a human being that you do not respect and have no appreciation or trust for him.

If you did thus you allowed yourself to be manipulated and it is your decision that allowed this manipulation.

And in this case, you have chosen the politicians you deserve.

And if these politicians then steal, deceive and cheat, allow corruption, favouritism, know that they do so with your blessing because you allowed them to do it.
