

HUMILITY and CRUELTY – part 1.

The word guillotine came to me and the image of the executioner's axe flickered in my mind.

I could not accept it at all and rejected this image of the executioner's axe as well as the word guillotine.

Question: Why did the executioner's axe and the word guillotine come, what does it show you?

Answer: I have to accept this as a way of transporting to another world but not as a tool through which I should move in the energy level. And I have to accept them absolutely. However, I have a problem even touching them as if I would condemn them and just trying to escape from them.

Question: Why are you having trouble touching them?

Answer: Because, however, this Responsibility for taking a Life does not belong to these tools because it belongs to who took the Life he did not give but I have personalised it in these tools. take LIFE in a violent and involuntary way. They are used for killing. They take a Life they did not give. I have personalized into these instruments this very Responsibility for taking Life they did not give.

I can't forgive them.

I can't touch them at all.

I need another means of transport that comes to me.

Question: So is something else coming?

Answer: No, it won't. I must realize that those tools are not responsible for the death of human beings and I need to accept it.

Question: What prevents you from accepting it?

Answer: (I said the following words very quietly. I whispered those words very painfully and couldn't say them. I felt a immense physical pain in my heart.)

Pain.

Extremely great pain.

I know I'm protected from the pain now otherwise it would kill me.

But I know it's here.

I perceive it through a thin veil that separates the pain from me so it can't touch me now.

And this is my happiness and salvation.

That veil protects me here and now because if I touched it, the pain would crush me and kill me here and now in this life.

It is the CRUELTY OF KILLING with which one human being kills other human beings when they fight each other but also when they kill defenceless people.

IT IS MEANINGLESS CRUELTY OF KILLING.

People were killed in many wars, also in World War I. and World War II. but in these wars, the form of combat was killing by dropping bombs from planes and this did not create in human beings such great cruelty as it was created when one held an axe in his hand and killed with this axe another human being.

This cruelty gets even greater when this killing does not happen in the fight, when it is not soldiers but when an innocent and defenceless human being gets killed.

Even though in a fight there is an axe in hand however the guillotine represents a meaningless and cruel way to kill.

It is a lack of RESPECT FOR LIFE.

The cruelty of the axe is that you look into the eyes of that human being.

You see the look in the eyes of the other human being.

You're looking at each other.

When aircraft were used to drop the bombs, the cruelty of this fight was not as great as the cruelty when killing face to face.

The man who kills when looking into his victim's eyes and yet kills his victim with an axe creates an extremely great cruelty in himself.

The arrows, once they are shot they bring death but even so, killing with in such a way reduced this cruelty because the one who shot did not look directly into the eyes of the person who was hit and killed with the arrow.

Cruelty is related to the fact that the one who kills looks into the eyes of the one who he kills.

I cannot accept that a human being is capable of such cruelty.

I cannot accept that man is capable of creating such cruelty within himself.

That is why I have transferred this Responsibility for creating just cruelty to the axe because I could not accept that a human being would be capable of and responsible for creating such cruelty within himself.

But this is what I need to change because nor the axe or the guillotine carry the Responsibility for the created cruelty.

Question: Now, did you understand why the prisoner's eyes were covered with scarves?

Answer: No, please explain it to you.

So that the executioner did not have to look at those sentenced people into their eyes because if he would look into their eyes when killing these sentenced human beings that would be the moment when the extreme cruelty could be created.

And I transferred this Responsibility to those tools - the axe and the guillotine.

But it's not their responsibility because they don't have the possibility to freely decide.

It is the Responsibility of those human beings who use those tools in this way.

Something happens just when the defenceless human being gets killed by the executioner's hand.

Something happens there just by looking into each other's eyes.

And what happens there is that the immense cruelty is born in a human being.

The cruelty that is born there then allows or protects that human being from feeling any responsibility for this action and therefore does not feel any guilt that it has taken the other human being's life because cruelty has taken his „CONSCIOUSNESS,,.

And this energy of cruelty remains part of the human being who killed for a lot of lives, for a very long time.

Once this cruelty is created in him, it takes a very long time till that human being can transform it into Love at his energy level, release it so it will no longer be part of that human being's energy field.

The cruelty then influences the actions of this human being from subconscious levels for a very, very long time, lot of lives.

It is a very strange feeling that I feel now.

Question: And what do you feel?

Answer: I already know what it is.

It will change those human beings' perception as if their eyes were made out of glass, as if they have this cold-hearted look, as if they have lost the human warmth that soul of a man radiates because the eyes are the gateway to the soul of man.

Every human being has brightness, glow, light, humanity, happiness, joy, laughter in his eyes.

If lot of human beings start fighting, the light, the brightness of happiness and joy will go out in them.

And when this happens, the eyes are as if they are made of glass and stop radiating the light and warmth of the love of the human soul.

And the cold-hearted look is the cruelty.

When it is closed and I don't know yet, where the level of human warmth in man is, as if he loses contact with his soul, he disconnects from his soul and then he has this „cold-hearted look,, and then e he can be extremely cruel, unimaginably cruel and it makes him feel good.

It satisfies him somewhere inside, whether it is at the level of the ego or in the deepest darkest place in a man.

It is the opposite of Love that we are, when we perceive that fear or pain, humiliation, suffering in the eyes of another human being.

It is a very strange closed circle that is formed because if one person can kill another person when they look at each other's eyes, he will create cruelty in himself in order not to see and feel that Responsibility and the guilt of taking a life that he did not give to the other person.

Because,, YOU SHALL NOT KILL,, is not only in one of the commandments that has come to you through many,,masters,, who have come on Mother Earth but „ YOU SHALL NOT KILL,, is in your DNA, it is part of your SOUL and it is written in your SOUL code and YOU are born on Mother Earth as human beings with this code but you are also born with it into the Universe as such because it is an essence that is written in you and is your integral part.

When you are born here on Mother Earth as a human being, you have written „ YOU SHALL NOT KILL,, it is in your CODE, in the DNA, in the SOUL, in the HEART as a commandment, it is just there.

By breaking it, you will create cruelty that then protects you from feeling guilty and accepting your RESPONSIBILITY.

But at the same time, the cruelty will create SEPARATION from your SOUL and it will then create that cold-hearted look.

It is the complete counterpart that you also have in yourself, that, as if he wanted to experience it, he harms, hurts the other human being with whom he fights and this person is then afraid of him, does everything on his command and is extremely Humiliated.

But it only happens when that human being is disconnected with his soul and it is manifested by this cold-hearted look and because of this disconnection, he then becomes cruel.

And this is a closed circle.

That is why it takes so long, so many lives, in that endless cycle of the life of that human being to transform that energy of cruelty from his energy levels into the energy of Love.
