

HUMILITY and PRIDE – part 3.

You can freely decide and forgive the other human being's misunderstanding, in particular, that he is tied up by many prejudices and convictions and then you allow him to bear the burden of his Responsibility on his own, by himself. Or you do not accept it in your pride and then the anger will take away your COMPASSION and YOU will not give him your forgiveness, however then YOU will take his RESPONSIBILITY instead of him.

And there are only these two choices.

YOU can decide what you will choose.

Because most people do not have this Knowledge, they choose anger that takes away their COMPASSION and thus they can neither ACCEPT it nor FORGIVE it.

Because most human beings, in their pride, build themselves a pedestal of importance and put in there only what they think is essential and important to them, this pride in themselves creates the anger toward the other human being.

However, what is important to them, does not have to be equally important to others.

And every single human being has a free right to decide what is important to him.

But you also need to learn to accept the free decision of other human beings because it may not be important to them.

And it is precisely the pride of that importance that will take your HUMILITY so that you can not see in that HUMILITY that the other human being has the right to decide freely, he does not have to put on the pedestal of importance the same „thing,, as YOU because each of you has his own way.

At certain stage of your journey „the thing,, may be important to you but at the stage of journey of others „the thing,, is irrelevant.

From the perspective of the Universe and also from the perspective of the evolution of every single human being as a free being born out of Love, in Love and for Love, it is all right.

If you would not place such importance on „that thing,, your pride would not take your HUMILITY and YOU would be able to accept the decision of the other human being.

But precisely because you give it such importance and put this thing above everything else, the pride will take away your HUMILITY.

And when the ANGER that is created in you comes as a response to the free decision of the other human being, the anger will take away your COMPASSION so then you can not ACCEPT and FORGIVE his ACTION and DECISION.

And at the same time, you do not see that by giving this „thing,, so much importance you have created that SUPERIORITY in yourself.

And since everything is connected and intertwined to everything, is this boundary when HUMILITY turns into PRIDE extremely thin.

And when you cross it, the PRIDE will not allow you to see the objective truth about the energy flow, as they are created, connected and interconnected and YOU do not see whether you form a circle of LOVE or you walk in the circle of pride and fear.

And you can lay the two circles on top of each other because they are identical in size and walk in LOVE in one direction and when you turn around you walk in fear.

What you cannot see and perceive in life is a unique moment when you turn in that circle, either on one side or another, so you do not know whether you are walking on the side of LOVE or on the side of FEAR.

Since the circles are identical, you can easily forget and pass from LOVE to FEAR.

Each of these circles works in Love but it can also work through fear.

This is because Mother Earth has duality.

And the moment you change the direction you walk in that circle, this represents your DECISION.

In every moment you make decisions and with every decision you make, and remember this, you decide for LOVE or for Fear.

Know that you choose LOVE only and only when you can FORGIVE.

When you can FORGIVE you can ACCEPT in HUMILITY everything that comes to life, and then you are in harmony with your SOUL, with LOVE, and with yourself.

Because all that comes into your life, you have created energetically across the line of time of your existence just by the decisions you made in your lives.

And this is the Law of Conservation of Energy in conjunction with the Universal Law of Free Will. By interacting with these two Cosmic Laws, you gain all your experience and this is the Cosmic Law of Knowledge on which basis, YOU have consciously decided to be born to Mother Earth.

You need to learn to CREATE YOUR BEING, to be the creators of your lives so that the experience you make will bring you Joy, Love, Happiness, Satisfaction, Creativity, Serenity and Peace into your life, here on Mother Earth.

And to do this, it is very important that you stop acting and making decisions in violation of these Cosmic laws.

It is very important that you learn to think, speak, decide, act and feel in accordance with these Cosmic laws because these are the laws of LOVE and LOVE as such, is your essence, you were born out of her and she is your integral part.

Therefore, in your whole being, you learn to act in accordance with Love itself.

You learn to know what LOVE is, as such and thus you get to know yourself.

And so it has always been, is and it will always be.

HUMILITY, COMPASSION and FORGIVENESS are an integral, inseparable and indivisible part of LOVE, as are Faith, Trust and Hope.

And as I have explained to you in the message of „ Love, Faith, Trust, Hope,, as soon as one of them is lost, all of them are gradually lost, so the same goes for HUMILITY, COMPASSION and FORGIVENESS.

If PRIDE takes your HUMILITY, know that ANGER will take your COMPASSION in a split second and you do not know how to FORGIVE and cannot FORGIVE.

If you cannot FORGIVE, neither COMPASSION nor HUMILITY is part of you.

If you do not have COMPASSION, the HUMILITY and FORGIVENESS are not part of you too.

And then you will allow the initial manipulation of fear which I explained to you last time, to inscribe through pride into you the comparison, judgment, criticism.

If that happens, you cannot FORGIVE in that life as the pride of the Superiority and your judgment clenched their claws very deeply into you and through other heads of pride that gradually grow in you, YOU as a human being cannot make an energy change to flip over into the energy of COMPASSION and HUMILITY and although you do not see it, you act for the rest of your life in the pride of superiority towards other human beings.

And you must be born again in order to open yourself to LOVE and COMPASSION and through COMPASSION which with you fill your heart, you will get back first, the ability to FORGIVE, as a Gift and then HUMILITY too.

That's why initial manipulation is such a powerful tool of fear because your society still accepts it very easily. And you teach young children these tools, such as mutual comparison, assessment and then criticism, condemnation and judgment which is one of the oldest and most sneaky prejudices in society, however, you do not perceive it as a prejudice and thus you don't do anything to dissolve it.

That is why the manipulation of fear is so powerful because you don't even see how fear gets you into his power through these manipulations and tools, as it takes your HUMILITY, COMPASSION and then the gift of FORGIVENESS from your life and YOU don't see that you're playing his game and still more and more you fight not only with others but you fight the most with yourself because you do not give yourself the gift of FORGIVENESS and COMPASSION.

And this is the interaction of another Cosmic law: both up and down, so in large as in small, both inside and out, because as you have it inside, the same is reflected in your society.

And just as it happens in your society, it also happens in a small way that is you do so to yourself.

Knowing how this Cosmic law works is part of fear as such.

Fear knows very well how the Cosmic Laws work and precisely because this Knowledge is part of fear but it is not part of you - human beings - fear can abuse it against you.
