

HUMILITY and PRIDE – part 4.

In order to break and dissolve the shackles that fear puts on you when you are born on Mother Earth, first you need to understand how these Cosmic Laws work.

You need to allow yourself that these laws become part of your Knowledge, that is, to understand them, to know them, and then to let them to become part of your life, that is, to be able to live them.

And it is your free decision whether you allow yourself and decide to know these Cosmic laws or not.

It is an analogy of whether you decide FREELY in your life to know yourself and walk through your life in harmony with LOVE and with your SOUL or freely choose to know the opposite and walk through your life with fear.

And both of these free choices are, in essence, EQUAL because in both cases you gain experience that will become part of you. In order not to create pain in yourself, you need to learn to accept these life experiences in HUMILITY and to FORGIVE with COMPASSION to avoid that created pain inscribes in you because you, yourself have freely decided for one of these two paths.

And this is the closed circle that brings the Cosmic Law of KNOWLEDGE.

You have the right to experience any experience in your being and life.

And it is up to you to make a positive or negative feeling out of it.

In both cases, it is important for you to be able to ACCEPT it as your experience without conditions.

It is important that you stop with creating pain in you by not accepting the situation and experience and that, through unforgiveness, you do not allow fear to anchor itself in your life, in your society and on Mother Earth as such.

This is a closed circle and no matter how the other human being has decided, it is his Responsibility and you can ACCEPT it, only if you will leave him his Responsibility for his decision to carry and in this way, the Responsibility will not be transferred to you and you will not carry the Responsibility for the other human being.

And if you can do it, the energy burden and burden of his Responsibility will not push you to the ground thus you will be able to keep your head upright and then you will see that on the path that the other human being is walking, he has not been able to decide otherwise.

And this is the HUMILITY in which YOU will remain.

And then you will not even create anger toward the other human being and the COMPASSION that this HUMILITY brings to you, will allow you to accept the decision unconditionally and FORGIVE him his words, decisions, or deeds.

And just as you get angry with this other human being, you take over his Responsibility and since it is a great energy burden for you, it does not allow you to keep your head upright so you don't see the importance you have given to that „thing,, which will create the pride of superiority in you and you will start to judge his decision and actions and then you will stop being in HUMILITY and so you will create anger in you that takes away your COMPASSION from you and you can not FORGIVE him how he decided to act.

At this point, you turned in that circle and stopped walking in the direction of LOVE and started walking in the direction indicated by FEAR because you did not even realize that you accepted his GAME he has willingly offered you and really start criticizing the other human being for his decision and actions because you have created in yourself the belief that he cannot make such decisions or act in such way.

And the paradox is that he can both, decide and act in this way because it is his free choice.

And this is because everyone has the right to give importance to different things in their lives that may not be the same for everyone.

And what one perceives to be important to him, to another, it may be indifferent, irrelevant or worthless and it is his sacred right to decide in this way.

And so often it happens that your inner eyes remain open to others and YOU perceive what is really going on but in relation to yourself, you become blind and then you cannot see the objective truth.

And all you have to do is to ACCEPT IN HUMILITY that the other human being has the right to decide and act in this way because it is his decision and it is not your decision and then COMPASSION will help you to ACCEPT and FORGIVE all.

By not accepting his decision, you stop seeing because pride has blurred your inner sight.

So the thin line that is between HUMILITY and PRIDE is the ACCEPTANCE – UNCONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE OF EVERYTHING that comes to your life.

And it is ACCEPTANCE of absolutely everything WITHOUT CONDITIONS.

That great stone ball is your attachment to all the prejudices and convictions that you, as a society or as individuals create or have already created and accepted in your life.

And now you have the whole picture.

Question: So how it is with the emotion of ANGER and also with the other negative emotions that we create as human beings, do we have the right to feel them or do we have to control them?

Answer: Of course, you have the right to have emotions because they are part of the fundamentals of every human being.

On the other hand, those emotions are possible to „control,, but it is not the right expression and it is not right to suppress them either but you can be aware of them in that particular situation.

And it depends on what the situation is, whether through the experienced emotion you strengthen the situation or you „demolish,, that situation with the emotion.

When you experience HAPPINESS then by realizing this HAPPINESS you will strengthen it.

When you experience ANGER and act in anger, you make the situation worse because you strengthen it negatively and then do not act in LOVE because you are not in the middle and let yourself be rolled over by this negative emotion to act in UNLOVE.

And this is the moment in that particular situation where it is important to be aware of that emotion and then to realise what you do with it, whether you act in LOVE or act in hate and anger because then you strengthen the EVIL that is the negative energies that you create in yourself.

So, there is no mistake to feel anger and experience it but the mistake is to act in that anger.

And this means realizing this emotion at that particular moment.

It is normal and okay when a human being experiences any emotion and only a human being has the GIFT to experience it, i.e. FEEL and EXPERIENCE EMOTIONS but the human being also has the free will and RESPONSIBILITY to realise this, in order to act based on his decision. And it is up to his FREE DECISION as he acts, whether in LOVE, COMPASSION, HUMILITY and RESPECT or in ANGER, HATRED, MEANNESS, ENVY, JEALOUSY, etc. Or by realizing his anger, he decides not to be taken over by the fire and he flips it to the other side to act in LOVE.

It is not retreating or cowardice; on the contrary, it is a VICTORY if the human being acts in LOVE and LIGHT.

And this represents the quotes:„when they slap you, turn them the other cheek or whoever hit you with a stick so you do it with bread,, and it is not weak, it is about the HUMILITY of that human being who acts with COMPASSION in LOVE.

This is the general principle for understanding human beings' behaviour through experiencing emotions because this is what I have explained to you many times that if you strengthen LOVE in yourself, you will strengthen LOVE and Peace not only in yourself but also on Mother Earth, if you strengthen anger then aggression and fight will arise.

Therefore, remember that you can never fight for PEACE.

So all the motto and slogans that your society uses are not correct because FIGHT always creates only FIGHT and LOVE always creates LOVE.
