

HIGHER PRINCIPLES OF COSMIC LAWS – Part. 3

And so fear works here on two levels.

On the one hand, it creates a system into which it draws more and more human beings through money because by benefiting from this circle in the form of money, people cannot escape from it. At the same time, it does not allow those ones, who could find the causes of their pain and suffering of their physical body, to cure themselves in Love.

And in this case, fear creates a double circle into which you are tied up.

And you don't even see how it affects you, it manipulates your decisions and you still think you are acting freely.

But even in this case, your decisions are free only to the extent that your fear allows you to.

And because the Law of Free Will operates here, and you only act freely when you are conscious and RESPONSIBILITY is part of your conscious action.

And by failing to accept Responsibility and passing it on to other human beings who make decisions for you, you cannot make that free decision for yourself.

And this is another closed circle.

You need to take Responsibility for your decisions and actions so that you stop passing on your Responsibility to other human beings by making decisions about you, for you and without you, without your AWARENESS. If you accept it, the CONSCIOUSNESS will return to you.

Whether your physical body is healthy is your RESPONSIBILITY.

It is your Responsibility to look for the true cause of your illness within yourself.

You have all the tools in yourself, inside you, absolutely all the tools to cure all your illnesses but you do not do so and you have handed over the Responsibility for your healing to the doctors. However, your doctor will decide, in his or her knowledge and discretion what kind of treatment and medications are best for you while this is your Responsibility.

The doctor is not part of your interior and so he will never know and find the true cause of the disease. It is stored inside you, so you can discover it, only YOU.

It is work on oneself that after discovering the real cause of the disease, brings many changes to the life of a human being. But many of you are resisting any changes. It is more convenient for you not to deal with anything, not to see what changes you need to make in your life in order to heal and therefore you transfer your Responsibility for this decision to another human being, who is a doctor in your society.

And it is this human quality - LAZINESS or COMFORT, to make any changes in your life in any way that allows you to transfer your Responsibility to other human beings. So know that LAZINESS or COMFORT is another tool of fear that uses it to hold you in its power. LAZINESS or COMFORT - is a tool of fear that keeps you in the old patterns of behaviour so that you cannot make any changes in your lives and you remain trapped in fear, pain and manipulations.

It's very simple. It's extremely easy for fear because through the tool of comfort or laziness it ties you up in the fear that you have created in yourself and thus does not allow you to act freely to be able to stand up and point out the suffering that in this system fear creates in your society

If you allow fear to change your cells with the pain and suffering that you experience, it will change the structure of your cells and your DNA. If this happens in that particular life, then you can no longer undo this change in that life and repair your DNA and so fear remains a part of your cells and DNA in that particular life.

In most cases, you have to be born again to cure it. If the soul understands this mechanism and has undergone CONSCIOUSLY the process of purification, transformation and rebirth, it would be able to change it in that initial life but for most human beings this will not happen and they must be reborn to try to heal this pain with Love.

This is a program of fear that has been intentionally inserted into human beings and that works very well. The fear that wants to conquer Mother Earth as a planet, needed to keep the beings who lived here at a certain frequency level in order to control and manipulate them. This is also related to the decline of the civilizations that lived on Mother Earth because that fear began to create fear in human beings not only in the sense that human beings were afraid but fear also created lower emotions and feelings that have a different vibration than LOVE and one of them is a feeling of POWER.

And POWER then created SUPERIORITY and so the BALANCE and EQUALITY on Mother Earth were violated. And as the consciousness of human beings changed, the vibrations of human beings decreased and POWER came into play. The human beings who accepted the vibration of power began to control the other human being who did not even realize it and therefore the minority began to control the majority and the majority obeyed to the minority in HUMILITY and looked up to them. And this is still happening in all sorts of forms in religions, in states and in families. The EQUALITY has disappeared in the vast majority of the lives of human beings.

Another way through which fear anchors itself in society is the violation of the basic, most sacred principles of being on Mother Earth.

It is a violation of the SACRED PRINCIPLES, namely the most sacred principles through which the NEW LIFE on Mother Earth is renewed and born.

And know that the violation of these sacred principles happens intentionally and knowingly in your society. It is the plan of certain groups of human beings because it is the violation of these most SACRED PRINCIPLES that creates the most pain in your society and at the same time takes away the ability of human beings to renew NEW LIFE on Mother Earth in LOVE.

And consciously realize this fact and feel it deep in your hearts. If you allow this sacred principle to be abolished, trampled, walked over and dishonoured, you will go back thousands of years in the evolution of humanity.

It is extremely important for the development of humanity and every single human being that you realize the value, importance and SACREDNESS of this PRINCIPLE.

That is why it is sacred because through this principle THE NEW LIFE IS RENEWED AND IS BORN ON MOTHER EARTH IN LOVE.

ONLY IN LOVE, YOUR SOCIETY CAN GO FORWARD.

ONLY IN LOVE, IT CAN BE RENEWED.

And the sacred principle of the birth of a new LIFE on Mother Earth is that a NEW LIFE IN LOVE is born and renewed through TWO ABSOLUTELY EQUAL BEINGS - MEN AND WOMEN, who, in deep mutual love for each other and at the same time to themselves, have given birth and brought NEW LIFE on Mother through their children.

And there is no other way on Mother Earth to renew a new Life and remember this !!!
