

HIGHER PRINCIPLES OF COSMIC LAWS - Part 4

The New Life, just as it was born on Mother Earth, is born also in the Universe because the Law applies here - both up and down, as in large so it is in small and both inside and outside. And just as Life on Mother Earth was born in heat, darkness and humidity because it originated in the ocean by the action of heat, that is, the Sun, so is born the new life of a human being in heat, darkness, and humidity.

A new life needs warmth for its birth. Because it is LOVE that creates the warmth of human beings. However, if you give birth to a new life in test tubes in your laboratories, the conditions for its birth are completely different and these children are born in coldness, frigidity and light. Coldness means fear and hatred. The warmth means Love and acceptance.

These beings can be emotionally cold and then find it very difficult to absorb the warmth of human Love into their lives and so they often feel misunderstood and detached from real life.

Part of this sacred principle is the birth of life, where the blood bond between mother and child arises and where, through maternal Love, the ability to love without conditions is given to the child.

If a child is removed from the family, the blood bond between her and the biological mother is broken. This child will never be able to overcome the trauma and pain of this separation in her life. And it doesn't matter what time you take this baby from her mother. Whether it's right after birth or when she is a toddler, whether she just started walking or talking. The trauma and suffering from this separation from the mother remains with the child throughout her life and she cannot forgive and release this pain in that particular life in Love, even as an adult human being. And so a human being brought up in this way is not able to pass on that unconditional love to her descendants in her life because she did not receive it from her mother.

As human beings, you learn from each other by example and by what you pass on to each other in the family. And the blood bond between mother and child is the bond of unconditional love. Once this blood bond is broken, this human being cannot understand, accept, and realize what unconditional love means and then she cannot pass it on. And so, from generation to generation, the ability to give unconditional love disappears from human beings and at the same time the FAMILY is trampled and dishonoured, through which new generations of human beings can be brought up in unconditional love.

This family bond is the strongest bond on Mother Earth because it is the blood bond of unconditional love.

And so beings who feed on fear on Mother Earth are trying to weaken, break, and erase this bond in your society.

And know that as a society, you are violating the Cosmic Laws precisely by putting your human laws above the Cosmic Laws and violating in your laws the sacred principle of the birth and renewal of a new Life on Mother Earth.

Neither two women nor two men can give birth and bring new Life to Mother Earth. And so they cannot even create a blood bond to their children and pass on to them the knowledge of unconditional love.

You also violate this sacred principle because there is no EQUALITY between woman and man in your society. And because man has created an imaginarily, superior position over a woman in your society, thus you are violating the sacred principle of the FAMILY.

THE FAMILY is a union of two EQUAL BEINGS and I emphasize EQUAL BEINGS who, in mutual unconditional love for each other and for themselves, have formed a FAMILY together. And this is the FAMILY according to the Cosmic Laws.

Because a woman in your society does not have an equal position in relation to a man, you create an immense amount of pain and suffering. And it is through this pain and suffering that arises in families that fear strengthens its position on Mother Earth and at the same time prevents you from raising your children in unconditional love, teaching them what unconditional love means and passing it on to them through your own example.

And so many of your children are born out of the pain, misunderstanding, humiliation and suffering of women. And know that they will bring this pain into their lives in their cells because they will get it from their mother through the blood bond.

That is why it is extremely important to return the EQUALITY status of women in relation to men into your society that children begin to be born in LOVE, UNCONDITIONAL LOVE, and that they bring this LOVE in their DNA, in their cells as the greatest gift that their parents give them and they pass it on at their birth, as basic equipment for their lives.

And another system that is being created in your society and is linked to fear, or in other words, the fear is gaining power over it and so it is beginning to work on the basis of fear is your social system, from which ACCEPTANCE and HUMANITY TO LIFE as such, is being lost.

One of the manifestations of the loss of RESPECT AND HUMANITY is that you take away the children from biological parents and pass them on to same-sex couples. However, from the point of view of the Cosmic Laws, these couples cannot form a FAMILY.

And precisely because you have lost respect and humility for life, you have put your human laws above those of the Universe. Beings who are unable to give birth and bring new life to Mother Earth have no right to bring up these new beings who come to Earth clean and immaculate.

And this is because these beings do not know and have not experienced the principle of Sacred Love between man and woman, from which a new Life on Mother Earth is born and renewed.

These beings have the right to decide how they deal with their lives but they have no right to influence the lives of human beings who have come here absolutely pure. Because what they will store and inscribe in these new beings, these children, once these children become adults, they will pass it on to future generations. And so by this behaviour, you are creating the conditions for there to be more and more unlove on Mother Earth.

It is very important that you change your social system and begin to perceive and especially feel what the real role of this social system is. And its task is to return RESPECT and HUMANITY to the lives of human beings in Love. Its task is to create the conditions for children to be brought up in unconditional love by their biological parents and not to create the conditions for children to be separated from biological parents and brought up by human beings who, from the point of view of the Cosmic Laws, cannot give birth to new life on Mother Earth.

At the same time, within this social system, you have lost RESPECT, HUMILITY and, above all, GRATITUDE to those who have given life to you.

Your parents, when they grow old become uncomfortable for you and instead of remaining part of your families and, based on their life experiences, passing on Wisdom and Love to a new generation, you will put them as far apart as possible. In this way, you impoverish yourself but especially the next generation that is losing the Wisdom and Kindness that the grandparents are able to pass on to the new generation in deep Love.

And this is precise because you are losing this Sacred Principle of the birth of a new life on Mother Earth, you are losing Respect and Humility to the birth of a new life on Mother Earth, and so you are losing in yourself the profound meaning what the word FAMILY means.

And all of this brings an immense amount of suffering and pain to your society and it is through that suffering and pain that fear anchors itself in your society.

Another system operates in your society and it is extremely important that you understand how fear deformed it.

And this is your children's education system.

And again, as human beings, you learn by personal example.

That is why it is very important that you teach your children Love, Respect, Humility, Compassion, Tolerance, Understanding, Mercy and Kindness. And this can only be done through the personal example of a parent who teaches his children to act like this.

At school, however, your children learn to memorize various lessons and must learn a history that contains lies, however, at school, they will not learn Love, Respect, Humility, Compassion, Tolerance, Understanding or Mercy, nor Kindness because children need to see that this is what their own parents do. That is a personal example.

At school, your children will learn to judge, evaluate, compare each other's strengths and performances, compete with others, learn to want to be first, achieve victories but these are all tools by which they create unforgiveness and feelings of guilt in life.

And so the whole system of education of your children has been consciously and deliberately changed to not support Love, Compassion, Respect, Tolerance, Mercy and Kindness i.e. EMOTION in the hearts of your children, but to support INTELLECT that can evaluate, criticize, judge, condemn and compare performances and that does not know Compassion, Love, and Mercy.

And so your children become cruel judges, especially for themselves, with this upbringing. And therefore they cannot create in their heart and within themselves that Peace, Serenity, Harmony and Balance.

And we got to the point from which we started today.

And you have here another closed circle.

Compassion, Respect, Humility, and Gratitude are the higher principles of the Cosmic Laws that a human being can create in his heart when the Knowledge of how the Cosmic Laws work is reflected in his Life and when they all become an inseparable, indivisible and integral part of his being.

And it is through Compassion, Respect, Humility and Gratitude that the human being creates within himself Peace, Serenity, Harmony and Balance.

And now, you see how it is interconnected, linked, intertwined and that everything is connected to everything.
