

LAW OF KNOWLEDGE – Part.2

FORGIVENESS was, therefore, an inseparable, indivisible and integral part of you.

So you can perceive and experience yourselves in Love, you need to know the opposite so you need to FORGIVE first.

Due to the fact that you have been deprived of the Knowledge that RESPONSIBILITY IS AN INSTRUMENT OF LOVE to live in Love, to feel Love, to experience Love all the time, you cannot Forgive unconditionally and you live your Lives in emotions of anger, forgiveness, hatred, pain.

This is a closed circle in which fear keeps you.

By living your Life in pain, you cannot perceive the essence of your soul, you cannot perceive the Love that you are.

You have decided to experience some emotion as a human being but if Love is an inseparable, indivisible and integral part of your soul, you also live your life in LOVE.

If FORGIVENESS becomes an integral, indivisible and inseparable part of you, you can experience the emotion you have chosen and at the same time through Forgiveness, you will return to your essence and realize that the essence of you and the essence of all human beings is UNCONDITIONAL LOVE, ALL-EMBRACING LOVE.

At present, you generally take Love for something conditioned i.e.,quid pro quo,. This is because Forgiveness has ceased to be an inseparable, indivisible and integral part of you. However, this FORGIVENESS is a part of your souls, an indivisible, inseparable and integral part of every soul and therefore at the soul level, if you return home, you can Forgive without conditions. At the soul level, you can forgive your deeds and the deeds of other human beings without any conditions.

This is because at the soul level the Faith and Trust in yourself, that is, in your SOUL and in ME is an inseparable, indivisible and integral part of you.

Therefore, when you return Home, after the death of your physical bodies, you heal very quickly through Forgiveness. Forgiving yourself and each other. Again, at the soul level, you decide what you want to experience next. Whether you incarnate as a human being in that next life and you will relive in-depth an emotion that you have not yet experienced, or you choose another emotion, or you decide to help another soul that is from your family of souls and who wants to experience some experience in the process of its Knowledge - Self-knowledge, or you decide to stay Home and no longer incarnate as a human being.

For example, if a soul decides that as a human being that he wants to understand in his life what it means to be patient, he needs the help from other souls who incarnate as human beings and will teach him that patience in order to experience, to understand. and to learn to be patient. Other human beings will create such situations in the life of this human being, who wanted to learn to be patient, that will teach him to be patient. But from the point of view of this soul who has chosen this Knowledge, these situations may not be pleasant for him and he may be angry with the other human beings. For example, it can happen that the other soul will show up late for an arranged meeting. Then the first soul must wait and be patient. This soul can form an attitude: to be patient, understanding and always Forgive the other soul. Or the soul can look at this situation in another way: he can say that the other soul is untimely, he begins to criticize, he does not forgive the other soul for being always late and thus a conflict is created between them. If the first soul cannot find compassion in its heart to Forgive the late arrivals, then it may happen that enmity will develop between these souls and they will stop meeting completely. There are many ways to solve this situation. None of the souls did anything wrong. Before the souls birth, the first soul decided that it wanted to learn patience and the second soul who loved him deeply, promised to create situations in his life in which he would have to be patient. Based on that patience, he will be able to create different emotions. But it only depends on him what emotions he will experience and develop in that life, how he will allow himself to experience, apart from the chosen emotions, that he was created out of Love,

Did you understand that? Yes.

It depends only on the soul what experience he will live, acquire and take back „Home,, with him.

This depends only on his free choice.

When these souls return home, they will understand that they both acted out of Love and at the level of souls there is absolute, boundless, and unconditional Forgiveness. As human beings, you cannot give each other such Forgiveness.

Did you understand that? Yes.

Through these emotions you have to learn to act based on the essence, which is LOVE, FROM LOVE AND FOR LOVE.

If you learn to act like this, then also as human beings you will Forgive unconditionally, very deeply, with all your heart and with all your being.

In a particular life, the first human being does not perceive that the second being is delayed precisely because of him so he can learn to be patient. Part of patience is waiting. He does not understand that the other human being is acting in this way because it was his soul who has asked the soul of the other human being to be delayed so that he can wait and he can enjoy having to wait and being patient. It was through his delay that he could enjoy the waiting and thus learn patience.

So the second human being is late for the meeting but he is late because he is guided to do so by the soul of the first human being who asked him, soul, to be late.

This is that everything is connected to everything, everything is interconnected and intertwined. If this Knowledge was part of the first human being, then he would wait for the second human being with immense Love, compassion and understanding in his heart and in his mind to thank him for coming late so he could have enjoyed the waiting and the process of learning to be patient.

But the fact that this Knowledge is not part of him, the first human being may be angry with the second human being for his unpunctuality. If this situation is repeated, great anger may gradually increase in the first human being. He may begin to think, to evaluate, to judge and to criticize that the second human being does not have enough respect for him to come to the meeting on time. He does so because he has lost the Knowledge of Forgiveness.

Because he has lost this Knowledge, he does not find Forgiveness in his heart, the power of Love and he loses the ability to forgive another human being.

By failing to act in Love at this moment, he creates another emotion which is anger and unforgiveness. Gradually, it can turn into such emotion that they will stop meeting the other human being.

And what happens to the other human being?

Because he has been so guided and does not have this Knowledge, she will create a sense of guilt that the first human being is angry with him and cannot give him Forgiveness. It may happen that these two human beings no longer meet during their lives on Mother Earth and break up with deep mutual unforgiveness.

The moment their souls return home, the Knowledge that is part of them will return to them and they will unconditionally forgive each other for this action. They may agree again to incarnate and relive this emotion but so that it no longer divides them, so that they can give each other mutual understanding, Love and Forgiveness. In this way, souls learn to experience individual emotions.

Sometimes it's not just about that one soul. There is always interaction and since everything is related to everything, you always experience other emotions too.
