

LAW OF CONSERVATION OF ENERGY – Part 2.

IF YOU CAN'T FORGIVE, YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT LOVE IS.

This is because it is not possible to separate one from other.

They are interconnected, intertwined, linked, it is a single unit.

Fear has taken away this Knowledge from you by separating FORGIVENESS from LOVE in his fake game.

All human beings have accepted this game of fear.

At present, you do not see, perceive or feel that FORGIVENESS is an integral, inseparable, and indivisible part of LOVE.

That is why you cannot act based on your very essence when experiencing and knowing individual energies, feelings and emotions because you do not know and do not understand what FORGIVENESS means.

You do not understand what FORGIVENESS brings in its depth and essence. You do not understand and cannot realize its meaning.

Even the Knowledge about the energy that this word creates, has been taken away from you in order thus you can not perceive the energy of this word.

Because you do not perceive the energy of the word FORGIVENESS - you cannot feel, perceive and see what FORGIVENESS can actually do.

That is why I return this Knowledge to you.

Learn to Forgive, perceive how deep Forgiveness heals and cures your cells, how Love in all its essence, through Forgiveness, enters your cells and bodies, how Forgiveness fills your cells and bodies with the energy of Love, how it heals and cures them. When you learn to Forgive, you will no longer need all the chemical products created by the pharmaceutical industry to heal your sick physical bodies. Love through Forgiveness will heal your physical body. Without any side effects.

By Forgiving, you heal all the cells of your body.

When you take chemical drugs, they only heal some of your organs but they damage other cells and organs. Although their usage will cure an organ that has been sick, on the other hand, they will affect and damage other organs that will be irreversibly damaged and affected by these drugs.

Because, as a human being, you have lost the Knowledge which means the word Forgiveness, is the beginning of the fact that, as human beings, you have begun to suffer from many, many diseases of your physical body.

If you return to your essence and begin to act in the Love from which you were born, so that you may experience, feel, perceive, see, give and receive that Love, you will also begin to heal your physical bodies.

If Love and Forgiveness return to human society, there will be fewer and fewer diseases. This, too, is a criterion of how full of pain your human society is.

The more pain resides in human society, the more diseases and illnesses are born in human society.

Certain groups of human beings have formed the entire pharmaceutical industry, only as a means of unimaginable self-enrichment. They consciously created this business because they have the Knowledge about the formation and causes of diseases of the physical body. They have Knowledge and know how the pain that arises from unforgiveness stored in human hearts creates disease of the physical body. It was this Knowledge that they misused to create the unimaginably powerful business and they have formed the pharmaceutical industry. They intentionally use drugs with side effects that only seem to heal human beings because, in essence, they cause the death and immense suffering of human beings and thus create even more pain in human society.

Again came the energy of Love and deep Compassion that felt like warmth in my heart.

While, so little and as well so unimaginably a lot is needed. It would be enough just to teach human beings to FORGIVE deep in their heart.

I have said an unimaginably a lot because we both know how long you have to go to find the strength to be able to Forgive anything, in your heart.

It is a path, a process that human beings and all of humanity must undertake.

To learn step by step to Forgive oneself and others.

Notice how fear nowadays, creates pain in human hearts, how it seeks to anchor hatred, rejection of human beings, bitterness, feelings of guilt but also helplessness, hopelessness, indifference, selfishness, ruthlessness and arrogance. Fear uses all this to manipulate human beings and society as a whole. It does so in order to prevent human beings from learning to Forgive.

The more pain, helplessness, hopelessness but also selfishness, ruthlessness and arrogance is stored in human beings, the less the ability to Forgive and the less willingness to learn to Forgive there is in human beings.

Did you realize that? Yes.

It is extremely difficult for a mother and wife whose heart is filled with deep pain over the death of her children or husband to be able to give Forgiveness to the human beings who caused it. At the same time, these human beings, who are manipulated, very deeply manipulated by prejudice and blind faith, do not see the pain and suffering they have caused to this mother by their actions.

Those human beings who have their hearts filled with selfishness and manipulate those who are filled with blind faith and prejudice do not understand at all, what a pain they cause. Due to their blindness and pride, they perceive only their power, their desire to control other human beings and they know that the easiest way they can do is through the pain they cause them. Because when they are full of pain, it is the easiest way to control and manipulate them. At the same time, this pain will not allow them to give Forgiveness.

Notice how it works in a circle. How it is linked and connected. In this manipulative way, the fear and at the same time, the pride of the „mighty ones,, abuse and manipulate the whole human society.

The hatred that human beings feel towards the other human beings that cause it all will not help you to change that. Hatred always remains hatred. It is the Law of Conservation of Energy. Remember that. According to the Law of Conservation of Energy, it is this hatred that strengthens itself and grows. The more it is in human thoughts, words, feelings, emotions, decisions, the more it is stored in the hearts of human beings.

Only Love and deep Forgiveness can change all of this. That is why I asked you to look into your heart if it is already so deeply filled with Love and Compassion that you can give Forgiveness to all human beings. Not only to those who harm Mother Earth but also to those who intentionally cause various diseases of human beings in human society and also to those who consciously and intentionally spread pain and fear in human society.

Can you do it? No.

I do not judge you, I only teach you how this process work, I show you what path human beings and the whole of human society have started to follow.

It is just a question so that you start to feel the Compassion that is growing in your heart. It's not a question intended to judge you. Feel your heart. How much Love, Compassion and Mercy need to be placed in our hearts so that we can truly give such Forgiveness from the depths of our hearts.

Only Love can heal these beings. For if you do not send Love to them under the Law of Conservation of Energy but create hatred in your thoughts, you do not even have to say or do anything then you unimaginably strengthen and materialize the energy of this emotion. See how in the human world, in human society, this hatred is growing. It is visible - in human language - to the naked eye.

To change this, you need a lot of Love, Compassion, Mercy in your hearts, you need to give them Forgiveness and you need to also send Love to beings who are filled with pain.

That's the COMPASSION. It is Compassion, on one hand, towards beings who create pain in others by prejudice, thinking that they are doing good and on the other hand, it is compassion towards beings who selfishly manipulate others, longing for personal power, fame and wealth. To all without distinction, it is necessary to send a deep Love and unconditional Forgiveness in thoughts, words, from your heart, in all your decisions, deeds, emotions and feelings.

Fear finds it very difficult to give up its power over human beings and is constantly looking for new ways to create more pain in human hearts so that it can hold them in its grip so it can very easily manipulate and control them.

THE ONLY TOOL IN THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE THAT CAN CHANGE IT ALL IS LOVE AND FORGIVENESS.
